This year's theme, "Hearts on fire, feet on the move" [Lk. 24:13-35] reminds us that we live out our baptismal call of mission when we are witnesses to God's love and mercy. Pope Francis invites us to focus on three themes for World Mission Sunday: the Word transforming hardened hearts, the Eucharist as the source and summit of mission, and the joy of spreading the Good News. Please pray and give generously for World Mission Sunday.

"Starting in 2022 and for the next three years, every Catholic diocese, parish, school, apostolate, and family are invited to be a part of renewing the Church by enkindling a living relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist."-(USCCB)
"If you cannot find Christ in the beggar at the church door, you will nor find Him in the chalice."

"In the Holy Eucharist we reach the summit of our participation in the victory of Christ over sin and death—the triumph we proclaim in the new evangelization. In this Most Blessed Sacrament we have the source of our zeal and strength to unleash the Gospel." — Archbishop Allen Vigneron
"En la Sagrada Eucaristía alcanzamos la cima de nuestra participación en la victoria de Cristo sobre el pecado y la muerte: el triunfo que proclamamos en la Nueva Evangelización. En este Santísimo Sacramento tenemos la fuente de nuestro celo y fuerza para dar rienda suelta al Evangelio."

"My God will fully supply whatever you need..." - [Phil. 4:19]

God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just a coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month – be generous with your gifts of time in prayer, talent in charitable works, and treasure, then see how God provides for your needs.

Thank you for your support & generosity!

FRIENDLY REMINDER:

"Whoever, therefore, eats the bread and drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of profaning the body and blood of the Lord... For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment on himself [1 Cor. 11:27-29]."

Twenty Eight Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today we hear Jesus tell the story of a king who invites everyone he can find to a feast for his son. Today and every Sunday, everyone is invited here to a feast where we receive God's Son. Many Sundays we take this invitation for granted or see it only as an obligation. Let this be an opportunity to be reminded that the Eucharist is a feast, that God's Son offers himself for us each time, and that this is just a foretaste of the heavenly banquet to come.

Vigésimo Octavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Hoy oímos a Jesús contar la historia de un rey que invita a todas las personas que puede encontrar a una fiesta en honor de su hijo. Hoy y cada domingo todos somos invitados aquí a esta fiesta donde recibimos al Hijo de Dios. Muchos domingos subestimamos esta invitación o la aceptamos como una obligación. Que ésta sea una oportunidad que nos recuerde que la Eucaristía es una fiesta, que el Hijo de Dios se entrega por nosotros cada vez y que éste es sólo un anticipo del banquete celestial que vendrá

The best prayer that Catholics have is the MASS... which is the greatest gift of all.

Faith Formation

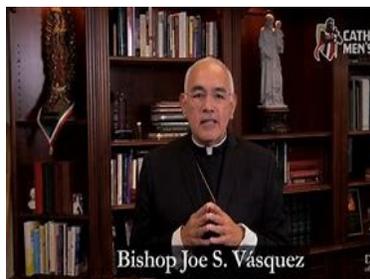

REMINDER FOR PARENTS

Parents, don't forget to bring your children to worship at Sunday Mass. Mass and prayer are two ways you can be leaders in the formation of your children.

RECORDATORIO PARA PADRES

Padres, no se olviden de traer a sus hijos a adorar en la Misa Dominical. La Misa y la Oración son dos formas en las que ustedes pueden ser líderes en la formación de sus hijos.

MESSAGE FROM BISHOP VASQUEZ

October is dedicated to Our Lady of the Rosary. I hope all of us can take time to pray the Joyful, Sorrowful, Luminous and Glorious Mysteries. In contemplating these mysteries, we remember the salvific acts of Christ's life and the closeness of his beloved mother, whose life was completely dedicated to her son. Pope Benedict XVI said that "The Rosary is a means given by the Virgin for contemplating Jesus and meditating on His life. Visit www.austindiocese.org/rosary for a guide on "How to Pray the Rosary."

El mes de octubre está dedicado a Nuestra Señora del Rosario. Espero que todos podamos dedicar tiempo a rezar los misterios gozosos, dolorosos, luminosos y gloriosos. Al contemplar estos misterios, recordamos los actos salvíficos de la vida de Cristo y la cercanía de su amada madre, cuya vida estuvo completamente dedicada a su hijo. El Papa Benedicto XVI dijo que "el rosario es un medio que nos ofrece la Virgen para contemplar a Jesús, y meditar sobre su vida."
