"Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'" [Lk. 10:37]

This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know, or someone that looks different than you, or someone that has different beliefs than you, or someone that you don't like. All because stewardship is lived without expecting anything in return.

Thank you for your support & generosity!

"The Precious Blood which we worship which the Savior shed for us on Calvary and re-assumed at his glorious resurrection; it is the Blood which courses through the veins of the risen, glorified, living body at the right hand of God the Father in heaven; it is the blood made present on our altars by the words of consecration. It is the blood which merited sanctifying grace for us and through it washes and beautifies our soul and inaugurates the beginning of eternal life in it."

POPE LEO XIV's PRAYER INTENTION

Holy Spirit, you,
light of our understanding,
gentle breath that guides our decisions,
grant me the grace to listen attentively to
your voice
and to discern the hidden paths of my heart,
so that I may grasp what truly matters to
you,
and free my heart from its troubles.

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today we hear the story of the Good Samaritan, the parable that Jesus told to explain how far-reaching the concept of neighbor is and how to show love to our neighbor in need. Remember, Samaritans were looked down upon by the Jewish people in that era. If even Samaritans were neighbors, then everyone was. If this undesirable Samaritan is the only person willing to minister to this injured man, we should do the same, ministering to anyone in need, no matter how different they are. May we heed this lesson today just as Jesus taught it two thousand years ago.

Decimoquinto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Hoy escuchamos la historia del buen samaritano, la parábola con la cual Jesús explica el amplio alcance que tiene el concepto de prójimo y cómo mostrarle amor a nuestro prójimo necesitado. Recuerden que en esa época los judíos menospreciaban a los samaritanos. Si hasta los samaritanos eran prójimos, entonces todos lo eran. Si este samaritano indeseable es la única persona dispuesta a atender al hombre lesionado, también nosotros debemos hacer lo mismo, esto es, atender a todos los necesitados a pesar de que sean diferentes. Que hoy le hagamos caso a esta lección tal como Jesús la enseñó hace dos mil años.
