"Every one of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple." [Lk. 14:33]

When we first hear this statement, it seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all of our possessions? We need them to live. However, what we must renounce is the belief that they belong to us. Everything that we have belongs to God alone. All of our resources are entrusted to us not only for our own use, but also so that we in stewardship can help others. Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything, it is much easier to share the many gifts that God has given us. Then we truly are His Disciples.

Thank you for your support & generosity!

Twenty Third Sunday in Ordinary Time – Over the last two thousand years Jesus has been given many titles, from Bread of Life to Our Savior. One of his first titles, going back to when he first stood and proclaimed God's word in the synagogue, is Rabbi, or Teacher. How appropriate to focus on that title on this first Sunday of September, a time of year when millions of young people are returning to school. Today we hear Jesus teach the crowds what it means to be a disciple. May he teach us as well as we gather together in his name

Vigésimo Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario –

En el transcurso de los últimos dos mil años a Jesús le han dado muchos títulos, desde el pan de la vida hasta nuestro Salvador. Uno de sus primeros títulos, remon-tándonos al primer momento en que proclamó la palabra de Dios en la sinagoga, es Rabí o Maestro. Cuán apropiado es enfocarnos en ese título en el primer domingo de septiembre, el tiempo del año en que millones de gente joven regresan a la escuela. Hoy oímos a Jesús enseñarles a las multitudes lo que significa ser su discípulo. Que nos enseñe también a nosotros reunidos aquí en su nombre

The best prayer Catholics have is the Mass... which is the greatest gift of all.

The Universal Church celebrates the Jubilee Year 2025 - the 2,025th anniversary of the Incarnation of our Lord.

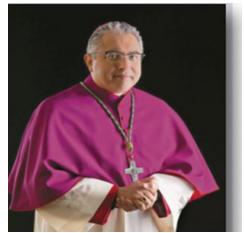

9 things you should know about soon-to-be St. Carlo Acutis So, who is Blessed Carlo? Here's what you need to know:

- He was born in London in 1991 -- Carlo Acutis was born May 3, 1991, in London, where his father was working. Just a few months later, he move with his parents, Andrea Acutis and Antonia Salzano, to Milan, Italy.
- He was diagnosed with leukemia -- Carlo was diagnosed with leukemia as a teenager. Before his death in 2006, he offered his sufferings for Pope Benedict XVI and for the Church, saying: "I offer all of my suffering to the Lord for the pope and for the Church in order not to go to purgatory but to go straight to heaven."
- Carlo loved God and the Eucharist from a young age. From a young age, Carlo had a special love for God, even though his parents weren't especially devout. Antonia Salzano, his mom, said that before Carlo, she went to Mass only for her First Communion, her confirmation, and her wedding.
- His witness of faith led to conversions -- Carlo's witness of faith as a child led adults to convert and be baptized. Rajesh Mohur, who worked for the Acutis family as an au pair when Carlo was young, converted from Hinduism to Catholicism because of Carlo's witness. Carlo taught Mohur how to pray the rosary and told him about the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist.
- He defended Church teaching -- Carlo was not afraid to defend Church teaching, even in situations when his classmates disagreed with him. Many of Carlo's high school classmates remember Carlo giving a passionate defense for the protection of life from the moment of conception when there was a classroom debate about abortion.
- He stood up for the vulnerable -- Carlo was a faithful friend. He was known for standing up for kids at school who got bullied, especially kids with disabilities. When a friend's parents were getting a divorce, Carlo made a special effort to include his friend in the Acutis' family life. With his friends, he spoke about the importance of going to Mass and confession, human dignity, and chastity.
- Carlo was a computer whiz -- Carlo was fascinated with computer coding and taught himself some of the basic coding languages, including C and C++. He used his computer skills and internet savvy to help his family put together an exhibition on Eucharistic miracles that has gone on to be displayed at thousands of parishes on five continents
- He balanced fun with faith- Carlo loved playing video games. His mother recalls that he liked the Nintendo Game Boy and Game Cube as well as PlayStation and Xbox. He had conversations with his gaming buddies about the importance of going to Mass and confession and limited his video game playing to no more than two hours per week.
- Carlo died in 2006 and was beatified in 2020 - Carlo died on Oct. 12, 2006, and was buried in Assisi. Initially, there were reports that Carlo's body was found to be incorrupt, but the bishop of Assisi clarified before his beatification that his body was not incorrupt.
