The parish/cemetery reserves "first right of refusal" to repurchase the burial right. According to the State of Indiana, the legal/current rights holder can sell burial rights. Burial rights cannot be transferred without written documentation from the original rights holder. Any private party sells must be notified and documented to the cemetery.

In accordance with Indiana Code IC 23-14-58.5-1, section 1 (a), If a burial space has remained unused for a period of at least fifty years from the date of sale or last recorded designation or transfer, and has no improvements on the burial space, including the placement of a monument, memorial, or other permanent appurtenance, St. Ambrose Catholic Church may terminate the rights and interests of the owner of the burial space.
