Crucifix in Saint Andrew Church Suspended above the Altar

The text below is an excerpt taken from Father Mark's article that will appear in the Sunday Bulletin this weekend, January 19 & 20, 2019. The complete article is well worth reading and is available online. Please follow the link below: <http://www.saint-andrew.net/publications>

I am interested in your thoughts about the crucifix we have placed in the sanctuary suspended over the altar area. We are familiar with having a crucifix during lent but I think this is more pronounce and beautiful. I did contemplate purchasing a bigger version of the one we use for lent but stopped short when I saw the cost. Instead we decided to do some tests with a cardboard mockup for size and height to test what we would need. We found that the size we thought would be right was similar to the crucifix we had in the hallway. So, before we spend money on a new one we wanted to try this out. We will have this one up to see what we think through lent. Personally, I would like to have a crucifix up all the time since that is consistent with what the church asks of us (see below excerpts from church documents). However, I realize the risen cross has been up for 30 plus years in this church and is liked by many. I also have heard from many they would welcome a new crucifix. There are some thoughts about putting the risen Christ over the baptismal fount or in the adoration chapel. I am open to your thoughts, including using the resurrected cross how we have been. But I ask you to be open to what the church asks of us.

One other point I would like to make. It is not about a dead Jesus or a living Jesus, as some say. It is rather about the love of our savior which is made visible in this act of giving himself on the cross. It is about our love when we suffer and have to carry our cross united to Him that gives meaning to life and this fallen world and our struggles in it.

*Please let me know if you have any questions,
In Christ,
Fr Mark*
