

The Order of Celebrating Matrimony

The Introductory Rites

Entrance Procession/Song –

Couples are encouraged to incorporate one of the three suggested liturgical processions:

Priest/Deacon, Bridesmaids & Groomsmen, Bride & Groom

Priest/Deacon, Bridesmaids & Groomsmen, Groom w/Parents, Bride w/Parents

Priest/Deacon, Bridesmaids & Groomsmen, Groom, Bride

A gathering song or instrumental music may accompany the procession. An instrumental version of the gathering song may be played during the procession and segue into singing at the conclusion of the procession. There should be no change in music for the entrance of the bride.

Gloria (recited during Marriage Rite with Eucharist)

The Liturgy of the Word

Texts of the Scripture options will be provided. There are more options available in the revised Rite: Old Testament, Psalm, New Testament, Gospel, Homily, Prayers of the Faithful

The Celebration of Matrimony

Couples are asked to memorize the Consent.

A recited acclamation is included after the Consent.

Blessing/Giving of Rings

Lighting of the Unity Candle is not done in the revised Rite.

The Liturgy of the Eucharist

Presentation of the Gifts, Eucharistic Prayer/Aclamations, Distribution of Communion

The Concluding Rite

Blessing

Recessional (instrumental music may accompany the closing procession)

+ Couples will be required to provide a more detailed worship aid for their guests to aid in their participation during the liturgy. The worship aid template should be completed with the Director of Liturgy and Music. The worship aids can be printed at the parish office for $.40 per booklet (black and white printing only; color is extra), or printed off site.
