Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This past Wednesday marked the 15th year since my priestly ordination. Now you probably know by now that if I love talking about anything, it is myself (that is sarcasm, people). However I simply have to make mention of this as a way of saying 'thank you' to all of you who gave me cards, gifts, well-wishes, 'thank-you's, and especially prayers. I am always humbled at the charity and generosity of the people of God. It is humbling to me because I feel that you are generally far more generous to me than I am to you.

What can I say about 15 years of priesthood? It seems as if it has gone by in a flash, and it also seems as if I have always been a priest (trust me, I have not). It has been the greatest blessing in my life, other than life itself. I must admit that I have not always seen it as a gift, during some of the darker times and when I was not grateful or spiritually where I should have been. Those times have been brief and far in the rearview mirror, thanks to you. More than you know, I thank you.

People often thank me for giving my life to God and to the Church as a priest. It was certainly a daunting and frightening prospect to embrace that call, but one can never outgive God. He has put more people in my life than I could have ever gathered around myself, and has showered His love upon me through the hearts of so many of His Faithful. Once again, I thank you and thank God for you.

How do I describe what it is to be a priest? When I was preparing for ordination, I came across a poem written by a French Dominican priest, Fr. Henri de Lacordaire. To this day, I have yet to find better words to describe what it is to be priest:

To live in the midst of the world without wishing its pleasures;
To be a member of each family, yet belonging to none;
To share all suffering;
To penetrate all secrets;
To heal all wounds;
To go from men to God and offer Him their prayers;
To return from God to men to bring pardon and hope;
To have a heart of fire for Charity, and a heart of bronze for Chastity;
To teach and to pardon, console and bless always.
My God, what a life;
And it is yours, O priest of Jesus Christ.

Peace to you,

-Fr. Chris

Prayer for our Military:

O Prince of peace, we humbly ask your protection for all our men and women in military service. Give them unflinching courage to defend with honor, dignity and devotion, the rights of all who are imperiled by injustice and evil. Be their rock, their shield, and their stronghold and let them draw their strength from you. Please keep all of our military in your prayers. Veterans and current military need our prayers.

Contact: Mike Rogan svdpsjd@gmail.com

As we celebrate the mystery of the Trinity we also realize the mystery of how much God loves and cares for us each day. Believing in this our lives can then overflow in thanksgiving and praise. Your gift in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box will help the poor to believe in the mystery of God's love for them.
