Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

St. Augustine of Hippo famously said of the spiritual life, "Only three things are necessary for holiness: humility, humility, and humility." Truer words have never been spoken. This makes sense theologically of course. The first and greatest sin was committed by Satan, and it was his prideful rebellion against the will of God that led to the invention of sin. And the opposite of sin is holiness. Satan could not trust that God's plan for the incarnation of the Son of God was the highest good. He thought he knew better, that God becoming man was insulting because of our lowliness, but in becoming man, Jesus shows God's radical humility, which shows it to be the highest virtue.

For us, however, humility is not automatic in us. It usually has to come about through patient suffering and by humiliation, which we do very reluctantly. The Imitation of Christ shares the following thoughts on this:

"Be not troubled about those who are with you or against you, but take care that God be with you in everything you do. Keep your conscience clear and God will protect you, for the malice of man cannot harm one whom God wishes to help. If you know how to suffer in silence, you will undoubtedly experience God's help. He knows when and how to deliver you; therefore, place yourself in His hands, for it is a divine prerogative to help men and free them from all distress.

It is often good for us to have others know our faults and rebuke them, for it gives us greater humility. When a man humbles himself because of his faults, he easily placates those about him and readily appeases those who are angry with him.

It is the humble man whom God protects and liberates; it is the humble whom He loves and consoles. To the humble He turns and upon them bestows great grace, that after their humiliation He may raise them up to glory. He reveals His secrets to the humble, and with kind invitation bids them come to Him. Thus, the humble man enjoys peace in the midst of many vexations, because his trust is in God, not in the world. Hence, you must not think that you have made any progress until you look upon yourself as inferior to all others."

In short, we place our trust even (and maybe especially) in the hard and humiliating experiences of our lives. God is always at work providing for us, even if the providence seems to be the opposite. Jesus, I trust in You!!!

Peace to you,

-Fr. Chris

Prayer for our Military:

O Prince of peace, we humbly ask your protection for all our men and women in military service. Give them unflinching courage to defend with honor, dignity and devotion, the rights of all who are imperiled by injustice and evil. Be their rock, their shield, and their stronghold and let them draw their strength from you. Please keep all of our military in your prayers. Veterans and current military need our prayers.
