Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It has been a longstanding and venerable practice in the Church to offer Mass intentions associated with particular celebrations of the Eucharistic Liturgy. Here at our parish, for instance, we most often mention the intention for that particular Mass near the end of the Universal Prayer (Prayers of the Faithful). But what is the reason and significance of this?

First, the Mass is not a reenactment of the Last Supper, as is often supposed. It is actually the re-presentation, or presenting 'again' of the One Sacrifice of Christ on the Cross. As such, there is redemptive power in this most potent of prayers. We know that all grace and redemption come from Jesus' offering of Himself on the Cross for us. So how do we make sense of Mass intentions? What do they really do?

Second, the Mass is not Jesus dying on the cross again. His Sacrifice is once for all. However, many countless Masses have been offered throughout the centuries. This would seem to say that Jesus' Sacrifice was either incomplete, or that Mass intentions are meaningless.

However, we need to see the celebration of each Mass in a different way. I like to think of it like this: if the Crucifixion is a stone thrown into a calm lake, then the ripples that come off the splash can be thought of as the individual Mass being celebrated in that time and place. Therefore, each Mass is a dispensing of the infinite graces of Christ's Sacrifice for that person or intention. The intention can be for a living person as well as the deceased, or a particular situation or group of people (family, country, parish, etc.)

It is also a praiseworthy practice to offer Mass for a person on important or significant dates in that person's life. These can be birthdays, marriage, ordination, and baptism anniversaries, or on the anniversary of the death of a deceased person. Particularly for the dead, we believe that these great graces assist them through any purgatorial purification, as they are made ready for the bliss of Heaven.

It is also important to note that even if you have a Mass offered for a particular friend or loved one, and you cannot personally make it to that liturgy, the merits of Christ will still be attributed to that person, since the priest who is ordained in the Person of Christ is offering that intention. That said, of course it is always a beautiful thing to be able to unite your own prayers and supplications to that of the priest at Mass.

Peace to you,
-Fr. Chris

Bereavement Committee - Needs your help to minister to our families during their times of grief by serving a meal following a funeral. We need volunteers to help serve (set-up, cut desserts, clean up, run the dishwasher, etc.) or donate a dessert, or both for 2024 funerals. Please sign up in the narthex, or call or text Donna Bittner at (812) 568-9113 to be added to the call list. She would love to have enough parish volunteers to form two teams. This is a great opportunity to serve your fellow parishioners during their great loss. The Bereavement Committee would like to thank you for your past support.

Help Needed: The call center for the area food pantries is seeking subs. Shifts are Mon-Fri 8:30 am -noon or noon -3:30 pm. You will be answering calls and will be trained on how to determine if a client is qualified for services or not. Please consider helping us. If interested or need more information please call Jo Ann Jarboe at 812-549-7801

The Marian Virtues FEBRUARY: 3, 10, 17, & 24

You are invited to join us for this year's Women's Faith Formation. We will be going through the Marian Virtues. These are virtues that Mary displayed and Fr. Chris will help us to dive deeper into them. We are going to switch things up a bit this year. We are opening this up to high school girls as well.

Week 1: Purity, Prudence, & Humility

Week 2: Faith, Devotion, & Obedience

Week 3: Poverty, & Patience

Week 4: Mercy & Sorrow for Sin

We will start with 8:00 am Mass only on February 3rd, followed by brunch and a coffee bar. For the next three weeks, we will start with a Rosary in the church at 8:30 am. This will be on Saturday mornings. Please RSVP to Mshetler@evdio.org or (812)867-3718
