MEMORY CANDLES

The candles in the Sanctuary Lamp and the St. Clare Adoration Chapel will burn this week

In Memory of Bob & Mary Adams

Donated By: The Heidorn Family

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Keeping with last week's theme of 'good things happening' here in the diocese, I'd like to point to another great development that has happened in the last couple of years amongst our laity. This would be a self-initiated 'podcast group' of younger couples around the Evansville area who began getting together for a night each month to share their faith, their experiences as married couples, and as parents.

Many of the couples are from places like Holy Redeemer, Annunciation, and St. John Newburgh. Our own parish is also quite well represented. Usually they will meet at one of the parishes represented and bring their families with them. A pitch-in dinner is had, and they have time for prayer at the beginning and the end of the evening. While the children play, they have a discussion on some pre-arranged Catholic podcast or other point of Catholic doctrine that affects family life. Once every three to four months they find babysitters and have a 'night out' together at a local restaurant with room to get together privately.

I have been trying to join them whenever I can get it into the schedule. I find this very encouraging, since they are quite young, have a fire in their bellies for the Faith, and are a great source of support for one another in living their faith well and publicly. Our world today often does not understand Catholicism and wishes to bend Catholics, especially young ones, to its will. These heroic couples joyfully push back against that. They and their kids (and future kids) will be essential players in the Catholic life of our diocese, and I'm convinced they will be leaders in the wider community as a whole.

This is something that I would love to see become more popular in our parishes, among young and old. It also represents the best of the notion of the empowerment of the laity in Catholicism, and I am 1000% behind them!

In Christ our Light,
 -Fr. Chris

After the weekend, Archabbot Kurt Stasiak, OSB, will send a letter asking for your financial support to continue their efforts. Please consider partnering in their work.

As always, please continue to pray more vocations to the priesthood, permanent diaconate, vowed religious life, and lay ministry. To learn more about St. Meinrad & to submit prayer requests, text "Prayer" to 800-682-0988 or saintmeinrad.edu/prayer.

Update: We continue to grow and are working with several new families in the Evansville area! We support needy pregnant mothers, their babies, & families. We do monthly visits & support them by praying with them, mentoring life skills, parenting, referring them to other community resources, and offering them help with some of their material needs. We also offer diapers, wipes, bus tokens, donated baby care items & baby/children's clothing. Periodically, we offer personal hygiene & household items. We have limited space for inventory, resources of volunteers, & time for organization of the inventory. We ask that when you donate gently used baby or children's clothing, that you please wash, bag, & label each item with gender & size. Thank you for generously supporting St. John's Gabriel Project! Please keep these families in your prayers! Needed items: 4 chairs for a kitchen table. Contact Tarah Bracher, 812-483-5820, if you can help.
