Father Jason's Christmas Village began in 1991 with a few houses made by his great aunt and has grown to well over 500 major pieces. The Village contains miniature versions of New York City, Walt Disney World, and London. It takes over ten days of family teamwork to assemble the village, and involves a mile of electrical wiring. The collection contains Dept. 56, Lemax, and Mr. Christmas pieces, several trains and trolleys, as well as houses and other landmarks made by Father Jason Palermo and his mother Yvonne Palermo in mixed media. (Free Tour)

Craft Booths: Paintings by local artist, Jewelry, Wreaths, LSU & Saints items, Pows, Purses, Gift Baskets & much more.
