From the Pastor’s Desk

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Holy Week and Easter Services are a wonderful memory for all who participated. The attendance at the various services was truly inspirational. I support you in your continuing efforts to deepen your faith in the Lord Jesus. May the blessings of peace and joy be yours this Easter season and always! In a particular way, I wish to thank our deacon, Mike, our wonderful choirs and musicians, cantors, servers, lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, sacristans, parish and maintenance staff, all who helped to decorate the church during Lent and Easter, and all who assisted in any way to make Holy Week and Easter such a wonderful spiritual experience. Also, Thank You, to Tina Dean for coordinating this years’ Egg Hunt.

Msgr. Dan

Divine Mercy Sunday, April 8.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Day of Reflection – April 14 - St. Francis Center for Renewal, Bethlehem, 610-867-8890 The 8 Most Difficult Words in the Our Father with Fr. Bernard Ezaki, Offering: $45 Includes Lunch. Forgiveness is sometimes regarded as the most difficult of Christian virtues. Yet Our Lord makes it a necessity for those who wish to be forgiven by Him. Fr. Ezaki will try to provide some informative and amusing tips on the fine art of forgiveness. You won't forgive yourself if you miss this day of reflection!

Bishop Schlert will celebrate the 11:30am Mass at St. Joseph the Worker Parish (1879 Applewood Dr. Orefield) on Sunday, April 22 for World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Eucharistic Adoration will follow Mass until 2:30pm in the church when several prayers for vocations will be offered with the seminarians of our Diocese along with a reflection by newly appointed Director of Vocations Promotion, Fr. Mark Searles. The afternoon will conclude at 3:00pm with Solemn Benediction with Bishop Schlert.

Diocese of Allentown Second annual Women's Conference—Sat., May 5, DeSales University. See postcards at side entrances and poster board in vestibule for details.
