AUGUST 15TH

SOLEMNITY OF THE ASSUMPTION MASS SCHEDULE

VIGIL IN SPANISH WEDNESDAY 6:30PM

THURSDAY 8:30AM, 12:15PM AND 7:00PM

HOLY HOUR CANCELLED ON AUGUST 15

MASS AT TABLE ROCK

We invite you to participate in this beautiful Eucharistic celebration (Mass) in celebration of the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord. Invite your family, friends and acquaintances to participate in this beautiful experience, the meeting point will be in the old penitentiary of Boise. We will climb the mountain of Table Rock in prayer, songs and meditation (The same route we use in Easter with the stations of the cross). The celebration of the mass will be on the top of the mountain, After the mass we will share lunch there for everyone.

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of the following parishioners:

ADELA ALDAMIZ-ECHEBARRIA

VIRGINIA ARTIS POMME

VINCENT MINKIEWICZ

As a parish community, let us pray for their families and the repose of their souls:

*Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.*

LIFELONG CONVERSION

THIS WEEK we continue our focus on the following element of our Station of Lifelong Conversion: “Moral Formation” as defined by the pastoral plan developed by the U.S. Catholic Bishop’s Conference: “Live a lifestyle reflecting scriptural values of holiness, simplicity, and compassion.” Here is a list of values (part I this week) or principles for living that are emphasized strongly in the Bible:

1. Worship Only God. In today's world, many things compete against God for our devotion. These are some of the things that are not necessarily bad in moderation, but can become modern-day idolatry if we let them become too important to us; e.g., pursuit of wealth, power, fame, pleasure or status.
2. Respect All People. The English word "love" has many different meanings, but the Greek word, agape, used in the New Testament, is commonly known as "Christian love." It means respect, affection, benevolence, good-will and concern for the welfare of the one loved.
3. Be Humble. Humility or being humble is a quality of being courteously respectful of others. It is the opposite of aggressiveness, arrogance, boastfulness, and vanity. Acting with humility does not in any way deny our own self worth. Rather, it affirms the inherent worth of all persons.
4. Be Honest. Deception may be by false statements, half-truths, innuendo, or failing to tell the whole truth. It is all too common in advertising, business dealings, politics and everyday life. We must strongly resist the temptation to engage in any form of theft, cheating, deception, innuendo, slander or gossip.
5. Live a Moral Life. Jesus gave a list of actions that constitute immoral uses of the body: evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false testimony, slander, greed, malice, deceit, lewdness, envy, arrogance and foolishness. The apostle Paul gave similar lists.

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE — July 28, 2019 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Are you guilty of spiritual stockpiling? Spiritual stockpiling isn't an endless rotation of rosaries and novenas. It's accumulating emotional "goods" to meet your needs. Perhaps it's a collection of material objects you treasure. Maybe it's a preoccupation with money. It could also be relationships, making sure there's always enough friends and connections to never really feel alone. It's our tendency to let things add up so that we won't quite need God to fulfill our inner life. Yet in this Sunday's Gospel, we have that inescapable petition from the Our Father. "Give us each day our daily bread."

This life isn't an immediate arrival. And as much as we might try to shore up possessions and pleasures, we know the journey is unpredictable. Give us this day our daily bread implies enough for the next set of steps, but not enough to stockpile. So here's the big question: Do we trust God to give us what we need? After all, "What father among you would hand his son a snake when he asks for a fish?... how much more will the Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?" At the Last Supper, Jesus said he would never leave us orphaned. God will not abandon us. And surely He wouldn't ask us to pray for what He does not intend to give.

Of course, sometimes our prayers for daily help can seem to go unanswered. Today's Gospel has advice for that, too. "I tell you... he will give up to him whatever he needs because of his persistence." Our spiritual stockpiling increases our self-reliance and decreases our openness to God's possibilities. Be persistent in your pursuit of God! Trust that He will keep His promises to provide for us, today and always.

BUILD YOUR FAITH

CONVERSION is not a onetime event.

It is a LIFELONG quest to become more like the Savior.

Stations of Lifelong Conversion

God loves you for who you are right now, but He loves you too much to let you stay that way!

WELCOME TO YOUR ROMAN CATHOLIC CATHEDRAL PARISH OF ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST Our parish was founded in 1876, and we became the Cathedral for the Diocese of Boise in 1885. Like every church, we are tasked with helping to “build the Kingdom of God.” First and foremost it’s about deepening our relationships with Christ, His Church, and our St. John’s parish community. Accordingly we’re committed to do some things to help our parishioners continue to grow their spirituality on a continuous basis. We Catholics get stations: literally with the Stations of the Cross. But our Church makes use of various repeating cycles such as the liturgical calendar to help remind us to keep our focus on the things that really matter. We invite you to join us in what we call the “Stations of Lifelong Conversion” wherein every three months we move to another key dimension of faith formation as defined by the U.S. Catholic Bishops. Presently we’re in the station of “Moral Formation” which calls us to consider how God asks us to live our lives. We pray that Christ will grant you—and our parish faith community—the fortitude to continue your lifelong conversion! We’re happy to have you here at YOUR Cathedral: you belong here!

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

IDAHO VOCATIONS If you're a young man, high school or college age, who is discerning God's calling for your life, Quo Vadis Days is for you. In Latin, "quo vadis" means "where are you going?" This is a key question for any young man as he looks at his future. Our annual Quo Vadis Days is a retreat that helps teenage boys encounter Christ, deepen their faith, and discern their vocations.

QUO VADIS

August 14-17, 2019

St. Charles in Hailey

Register at idahovocations.com

Run by priests and seminarians of the Diocese of Boise, Quo Vadis includes Mass, Divine Office, Rosary, and Holy Hour, plus hiking, sports, and other recreation. More information is available at the new Diocesan Vocations website:

<https://www.idahovocations.com/> The website features resources, contact information, and discernment groups throughout the Diocese. There's also a photo of two familiar faces here at St. John's! Two $100 scholarships are available to help with the registration fee and supplies. For details, contact Jim and Mary Ellen Nourse at jimmarye8694@q.com.

BLUE HAT ROSARY Thank you to Loretta Ruch for opening her home to our Rosary Blue Hat gathering. Also to Maryann Wilson for readings during the rosary. Maryann Winkle did an excellent job closing our rosary prayer.

Our next Rosary Blue Hat will be August 10th, time 11:30 a.m. at the Cathedral, where Pat Minkiewicz will finish our part 2 tour of our most beautiful Cathedral.

Following the tour Maryann Wilson will graciously open her home for our fellowship time. Lunch will be provided. Please RSVP if you plan to attend. Call or text 208-602-6899 for more information.

St. John's Blue Hat is invited to join Holy Apostles Blue Hat group, August 5th, for a bus day trip to Our Lady of the Snows in Sun Valley. Beth Walz has a wonderful pilgrimage planned. The bus is quickly filling up. For cost and times please call 208-830-4476. Spouses are invited. If you are interested and not a Blue Hat yet, you are also invited.

Rosary Blue Hat pray the rosary every Second Saturday of the month. Our goals are: prayer, share and fellowship. We wear our blue hats to honor Mary our Blessed Mother. There are no dues or meetings. Wearing a blue hat is encouraged but not required. If you have never prayed the rosary and want to learn this is a good time as any to learn with us to help you.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL, ST JOHN'S CONFERENCE is planning a trip to St. Agnes in Weiser, ID, Sunday August 25th, for their 9:00 Mass. Fr. Jerry will be available for coffee with us after Mass. Please contact Kathy Dahl if you wish to go. No need for SVDP members to call, but all others please call 208-484-2972 by August 13th. We will need to meet at the Riffle Center by 7:00 am August 25th, and leave by 7:15 to arrive in time for the 9 am Mass.
