Reflection

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing." Martha was caught up in a whirlwind of her own making. She stressed herself out with all the tasks and chores she thought she had to do to host Jesus, but Jesus wasn't the one who expected all of that. He just wanted Martha's presence, her company and friendship. His only expectation was that Martha would prepare for him her heart, but she was fixated on preparing her home instead.

How often do we create a similar whirlwind in our lives? How often do we fixate on external details, on making a good impression, on having all appearances looking just so, but forget what really matters? How often do we make ourselves "anxious and worried" about all we think we have to do? In today's Gospel Jesus calls us to stop the frenetic activity of our lives, to pause and listen, imitating Mary "who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak."

This can seem impossible. We look at our calendars and our to-do lists and cannot find a single slot in which to squeeze quiet prayer or silent spiritual listening. But Jesus asks us to reorganize our priorities. He tells us, "There is need of only one thing." Really, Jesus? Have you seen our lists!? What can we possibly eliminate? Don't we need to do all of this?

The Lord says no. What we need to do is to make time to be with him. The same Lord who turned water into wine and fed five thousand men with five loaves of bread and two fish can also multiply our time. So instead of being like Martha who tried to tell Jesus what to do-"Tell her to help me"-let's be like Mary who listened to what Jesus had to say.

16º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Este domingo la primera lectura nos narra la misteriosa visita de tres personajes que llegan a la tienda de Abraham el que se desvive por atenderlos, su hospitalidad es de primera clase. Se preocupa de recibir a sus visitantes con un suculento banquete desde que llegan su actitud de servicio y disponibilidad son asombrosos. El centro fundamental de la narración es la promesa del hijo. ¿Qué podemos aprender de Abraham sobre la hospitalidad? ¿Cómo implementarla en nuestras comunidades multiculturales? Si al menos hoy nos detuviéramos un poquito en ver la manera de cómo nos tratamos los unos a los otros en el aspecto de la hospitalidad -dejaríamos de hacer mal al prójimo y respetaríamos al vecino. ¡Viviríamos en paz y armonía!

En el relato del Evangelio, se nos narra otro aspecto relacionado con la hospitalidad a partir del contraste entre las personalidades de las dos hermanas que reciben a Jesús en su casa. María contempla, Marta actúa. Ambas acciones son buenas, pero, deben tener balance. Hay un dicho popular que dice: "Ni tanto que queme al santo ni tanto que no lo alumbre". Es decir, las preocupaciones de la vida no deben ahogar la semilla de la Palabra de Dios, el vivir siempre en acción, en este caso, impide ver las cosas bellas del Reino. Lo importante de estas lecturas es que tomemos en cuenta lo siguiente. Recibir al Señor que pasa en cada acontecimiento de la vida. Reconocer su presencia en cada uno de nuestros hermanos y hermanas. Saber que siempre el Señor nos acoge en su casa si hay arrepentimiento. ¡Teniendo a Jesús en casa, nada más es necesario!

DRINK WATER
TO GIVE WATER

Is it really that simple?

What if we could help offer access to clean water just by drinking it? That's the simple idea behind the H2O Project—drink water to give it. Give up every beverage but tap water for a period of a week or two—just decide what works for you. Track what you save on coffee, soda or other drinks and donate it toward safe, clean water for our friends in desperate need. So grab some friends—your family, school or church —and change lives with us!

Give the gift of Safe Water

St Peter's will be taking part in the 10 day challenge to Drink Water to Give Water. Join in on the fun to help build a well in one of the 20 countries which do not have access to clean drinking water.
The challenge begins July 17 and will continue till July 27. Collection of proceeds from what you saved during your challenge will be collected July 31.

Pictorial Directory Registration is happening NOW!!

Please register online or after Mass.
There is no required purchase.

Photos sessions will be July 26– September 9

House Belssings

House Blessings are a rich Catholic tradition to grace our home so it may be Christ's home too. It matters not if it is a newly built home or a home purchased that was built some time ago or a home/apartment you rent. This is a dedicated time set aside for the purposeful blessing as a re-awaking that God has already been in our lives and continues to bless them from that point forward. It is a reaffirmation that God is always journeying with us in life, loving us, be it in good times or in bad. If you would like your home blessed please contact Deacon Ken 830-377-5838 ken@nickelranch.com.

A certificate of the event will be furnished to you. There is no charge or stipend, however a donation to the church.

We are beginning a Series of Bulletin Announcements about Stephen Ministry

Week 1: So How Does Stephen Ministry Help You or a Family Member Going Through a Difficult Time and You Have a Need to Speak to or Confide in Someone?

Over the next several weeks we will share some of the many areas where a Stephen Minister can help those going through a difficult time. One area is those who are grieving the loss of a loved one. When we lose a loved one, we experience a wide range of feelings and it can be very tough to go through this on our own or even with other family members. A Stephen Minister can meet with you one -on-one to help you through your grief. They will listen to what you are experiencing, talk with you about your loved one, pray with you for your loved one, and pray for you as you go through this time. For more information, contact one of our Stephen Leaders, Shirley Fenton 830-755-9055, Jim Morey 830-537-6103, or Fr. Norm.

For those of you who may go want to learn more and go deeper into the contemplative "better part" to which Jesus invited Mary in today's Gospel from Matthew – here are some resources which may help. I as a Spiritual Director, am available to discuss these and other areas with you. I also have access to many other Spiritual Directors and can make recommendations to you.

Contemplative Outreach
Fr. Thomas Keating is a founding member and the spiritual guide of Contemplative Outreach, LTD. He has served on Contemplative Outreach's Board of Trustees since the organization's beginning and is currently serving as the Chairman of the Board. Fr. Keating is one of the principal architects and teachers of the Christian contemplative prayer movement and, in many ways, Contemplative Outreach is a manifestation of his longtime desire to contribute to the recovery of the contemplative dimension of Christianity. Among his many books are his classic Open Heart and Open Mind and my favorite – The Better Part. http://www.contemplativeoutreach.org/fr-thomas-keating
A great method to get started is the "Three-minute retreat" which many have as a daily download to their phones Loyola Press http://www.loyolapress/3-minute-retreat
Another great resource introduces Ignatian Spirituality: http://www.ignatianspirituality.com/
Some of you have practices Lectio Devina – highly recommended a great introduction is by the Order of the Carmeliteshttp://ocarm.org/en/content/lectio/what-lectio-divina
Centering Prayer is also highly recommended. Contemplative Outreach covers it an easily understood manner – also explained is Lectio Devina
Great website with daily possibilities by Bishop Robert Barron http://www.wordonfire.org/
