I will participate in The Columbiettes of Our Lady of Victory, Vendor & Craft Fair, on Saturday October 6, 2018 by renting a space with 1 table for display of items I will be selling. I will not hold the Columbiettes or Our Lady of Victory, the Roman Catholic Diocese of Albany or any representative thereof, responsible for any personal injury or property damage which might be realized while in attendance.

As the vendor assumes all risks and responsibilities for their personal safety and loss or damage to personal property, we strongly recommend that all exhibitors carry insurance for protections against such loss.
