ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST: The Eucharist, in which the community relives the passion, death and resurrection of the Lord, is the heart of the Kingdom. The Kingdom is realized in the Eucharist. Jesus, present in His passion, death and resurrection, is God's activity among us, perfectly and completely. The Eucharist is the now of the Kingdom. Yet, the presence of sin apparently keeps the presence of God's activity from being fully realized. In so far as we die to sin, we will rise in the realization of the Kingdom. Yet, while there is growth, there is already a harvest. The Eucharist is our daily bread and the fullness of growth.

WORD OF LIFE: "Our relationship with Christ — strengthened by receiving him worthily in Holy Communion — helps us understand our relationships with one another and with creation." USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities "Serene Attentiveness to God's Creation"

Bread for the World

We cannot help but be moved as we sing Franck's Panis Angelicus. But, we cannot help being more strongly moved by the realization that the "bread of angels" is truly the bread given to humans, to us. Jesus gives himself as bread, as Body and Blood. This sustains us, finally and wholly, on this earth.

NOTE ON STEWARDSHIP

Among the compelling Eucharistic themes proclaimed in today's readings is the notion of "participation" as found in Saint Paul's letter to the Corinthians, or in other words, putting the Eucharist into action. Good stewards are part of a Eucharistic family that loves, welcomes and serves. An important part of living as a steward comes about in the many ways we can participate in the life of the Church. No matter how much time we have to give, no matter what our skills or interests, no matter what our level of commitment, there is a way to participate as a good steward to enrich our lives and the lives of others to build up the Body of Christ. During this time when people are anxious and fearful, what are we doing to welcome others, and to love and be of service to them. International Catholic Stewardship Council

Reflection

Our sharing in the Body and Blood of Christ not only keeps us alive in him, it keeps us together. The bread we break and the cup we share are our participation in his life. Paul reminds us that as the bread is one, we, the many, are also one with Christ and with one another. This communion and union must show in our daily lives, which must manifest our participation in Holy Communion. The feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ is a good time to remember this.
