REAL COMMUNION

The Body of Christ" refers to the church as well as to the Eucharist. When we share in the Body and Blood of Christ, we have communion with God and with one another.

Jesus is present to us in many ways. We hear his voice in the Gospel. We experience his love in our community. We receive him sacramentally in the Eucharist. We are called the Body of Christ because Christ dwells with us.

St. Paul wrote the Corinthians, "Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf."

When we receive Communion we experience our communion with one another. Many though we are, we are one in Christ. Just as many grains of wheat make one loaf, just as one loaf is shared by many people, just as many people become one by sharing that one loaf, so do we many become one in Christ. Jesus unites our community when we share our communion together.

Paul's words were especially significant to the Corinthians. He began this letter addressing the divisions in their church and calling the faithful there to unity. At this point in his letter, we understand why. Their unity in the church is critical to the integrity of their worship.

If our Eucharist is to be sincere, our communion must be real. We eat the Body of Christ. We drink the Blood of Christ. We are the Body of Christ.

WORD OF LIFE: "Christ's blood reveals to man that his greatness, and therefore his vocation, consists in the sincere gift of self. . . . It is from the blood of Christ that all draw the strength to commit themselves to promoting life. It is precisely this blood that is the most powerful source of hope, indeed it is the foundation of the absolute certitude that in God's plan life will be victorious." *"Pope Saint John Paul II, Evangelium vitae © 1995, Libreria Editrice Vaticana. ## HUNGRY GROUCHES

How do you act when you get hungry? If dinner is late or service is slow, are you known for your patience?

Moses told the people that God made them hungry in the desert to find out how they would handle it. Would they still keep the commandments even when they were hungry?

Imagine being judged on how you acted when you were hungry. Most of us would want to be judged in other circumstances: on those occasions when we helped our neighbor, when we gave a generous gift, or surprised someone with a compliment. But how we act when we are hungry? That is not fair.

In reality, we are hungry all the time. We hunger for justice, for love, for faith, and for community. We hunger for deeper union with the God who made us. If God wonders how we behave when we are hungry, the evidence mounts up every moment of every day.

The manna that God sent to the desert fed hungry bellies, and the Word that God spoke through Moses fed hungry spirits. If people responded in gratitude, they pleased God.

When we gather for Eucharist, God's Word forms us and God's food feeds us. If we respond in gratitude, we please God.
