Living Catholic in the 808:
 Helping Others Recognize the Holy Spirit

Most people of faith I know have a deep love for God the Father and/or for Jesus Christ, but, overall, not enough Christians have a devotion to the Holy Spirit.

This is our loss. After all, it is the Holy Spirit who helps us notice the beauty of a sunset.
 it is the Holy Spirit who nudges us to help a homeless person.
 it is the Holy Spirit who clears our calendar that one weekend we really need a break from our busy life.
 it is the Holy Spirit who makes good come from our suffering.
 it is the Holy Spirit who makes our heart swell with love for our child.
 it is the Holy Spirit who gives us peace at the oddest of moments.
 it is the Holy Spirit who gives us a devotion for God the Creator and/or for Jesus Christ, for the Saints, for our Church, for Eucharist, etc...

Quite simply, without the Holy Spirit, we would not be Christians.

How do we help others recognize the Holy Spirit? Two ways: 1) tell others that X event was the Holy Spirit acting in your life; 2) affirm with others that Y event was the Holy Spirit acting in their life.

NOTES ON STEWARDSHIP

In today's first reading we encounter the Holy Spirit who at Pentecost came rushing in over Jesus' followers like a powerful wind. It must have been a frightening experience for them. But their great acts of prophetic witness began when the Spirit drew them out of their "comfort zones." Jesus said the Holy Spirit, like the wind, blows where it wills into the lives of good stewards, empowering them to perform wondrous acts of healing, reconciliation and evangelization; encouraging them to proclaim the Gospel with boldness and confidence. All of that is a little beyond the comfort zone where most of us live our lives. This week, reflect on how the Holy Spirit may be calling you out of your personal comfort zone. COME, HOLY SPIRIT, COME

Many times in the Hebrew scriptures we see God coming to earth as a mighty wind. So when we hear of the mighty wind filling the house in Acts today, we know without being told that God is there, acting among the disciples. God fills them, and us, with the Holy Spirit. The disciples are able to preach the Good News to all the peoples of the earth, gathered there symbolically in Jerusalem. God wants the word to spread beyond the Mediterranean, eventually all the way to the Arctic Sea!

And the word is unity. By the power of the Holy Spirit, we are all one in Christ. There are different gifts given to each member of the body, but each gift is a manifestation of the Spirit. Each person, each culture of people has different gifts. That's what makes the body of Christ strong. Let us take care never to suppress another's gifts, even though we might not understand them. To suppress a gift would give injury to the body of Christ.

UNITED IN LOVE

All throughout this Easter season, we have heard about the radical love Jesus calls us to share in this world. God gives us the Spirit so that we humans have the strength to love as Jesus loved. This love that doesn't discriminate, that celebrates the diverse gifts of God's creation, this is the love that we have the power to share. To love as Christ loves, to act as Jesus did, is something you and I can do because we are filled with the power of the Holy Spirit. We can be people of peace, we can feed the hungry, clothe the naked. We can choose not to go to war. We can choose to lift up the gifts of those different from us. We are Christians—we are people of love.
