WELCOME

St. Stanislaus is reaching out in service to our diverse neighborhood peoples. Please be generous in your support of the many good works of our Parish. St. Stanislaus depends upon the regular support of its membership and the generosity of those who visit here. Please look upon your financial gift or sacrifice as a way of giving praise to God along with the many from earlier generations who have worshiped and prayed here for 129 years.

Stanisław Szczepanowski

So, what do you have planned for July 26? No, not this summer – the summer of 2030! Well, you'll probably be receiving an invitation in the mail, for a birthday party – the 1,000th birthday of St. Stanislaus!

I'm looking forward to attending as I'm sure most of the 29 year olds are. Those of you with enough stamina to make it to the 1,000th anniversary of his death at the hands of King Boleslaw the Bold will have to wait until 2079. Something tells me I can bet that I won't be there for that party, at least not as one of the communion of the faithful. So, I, along with Stanley Witzak and Tim Sklodowski, am going to be visiting the site of that martyrdom sometime on October 27th, at the church referred to as Skalka, named after the hillock of Jurassic limestone on which it stands.

The clash between the temporal and the spiritual powers resulted in the end of the King's rule and the creation of an outstanding example of Christian commitment against violence, against war and, most importantly, pro-life. Stanisław's criticisms and condemnations of the King's low moral standards, both personally as well as with his involving the nation in what Stanisław regarded as a questionable loss of life at the King's military excursions in Kiev, cost him his life.

Stanisław was recognized as a saint and canonized by Pope Innocent IV at Assisi in 1253. His saintly remains are now kept in Wawel Cathedral along with the earthly remains of General Sikorski, Tadeusz Kościuszko, the dynasties of Jagiello, the Vasas and the Saxons as well as artists, poets, and other icons of Polish historical significance – with room for even more.

Only twenty-eight years to go before we can pop open the champagne to celebrate the life of one man who would not compromise. Perhaps we can already honor our patron by following his example, by strongly supporting the culture of 'life', not 'death.' Maybe (I did say 'maybe') the champagne can wait, but the culture of life needs our attention now.

NAJWIĘKSZA JEST MIŁOŚĆ

O gdybyśmy umieli przyłożyć ucho do serca zmęczonej ludzkości i wsłuchać się w pragnienia, które są tam ukryte, poznalibyśmy, że człowiekowi potrzeba prawdy, wolności, sprawiedliwości, ale nade wszystko - Miłości...

(Kard. Stefan Wyszyński - "Miłość na co dzień")

W miarę rozwoju ludzkości rozmaite potrzeby człowieka są coraz mocniejsze, a ich zaspokojenie znajduje coraz więcej możliwości. Producenci reklam nie ustają w wysiłkach, by przekonać o tym każdego, kto sięga po prasę czy spogląda na ekran telewizyjny; czasami to wszystko sięga granicy obłędu. Mimo tego, ludzkie głody wydają się wciąż nienasycone. Rodzi się więc pytanie: Dlaczego? Bo coraz trudniej jest zaspokoić fundamentalny głód człowieka: tęsknotę za miłością. Spełnienie jakichkolwiek innych oczekiwań zawsze rodzi poczucie niedosytu, rozczarowania, a w konsekwencji powstaje dalszy głód, który każe szukać nowego zaspokojenia. Jedynie miłość przynosi spełnienie, które satysfakcjonuje ludzkie serce i czyni je szczęśliwym.

Czy miłość można zdefiniować? To niemożliwe. Bogactwo jej możliwych kształtów rozsadza ludzką wyobraźnię, gdy ta pozostaje w uległości wobec trzeźwego rozumu. Tylko człowiek, który pociągnięty jest nieskrępowaną siłą miłości, może odczytywać i rozumieć to, co w swej uduchowionej twórczości miłość drugiego jest w stanie dokonać. Tylko zdolny do miłości rozumie dobrze tego, który miłuje.

Swym zasięgiem miłość obejmuje wszystkie płaszczyzny życia: społeczną, rodzinną, religijną. Wszelki ład, zarówno osobisty jak i społeczny, można budować tylko na fundamencie miłości.

Gdzie jednak szukać miłości? Jak pojąć właściwą jej miarę? Czy w sobie człowiek może znaleźć jej źródło? Jak się ustrzec przed jej zniekształceniem? Bo przecież człowiek jest zdolny zniekształcać wszystko cokolwiek wpadnie w jego ręce. Pytania te pozostaną bez odpowiedzi, dopóki człowiek nie odkryje, że źródło prawdziwej miłości jest w Bogu. Bowiem Bóg jest pełnią miłości, Bóg jest Miłością. Ta Absolutna Miłość udziela się miłości cząstkowej i nieustannie ją ku Sobie pociąga. W tej małej cząstkowej miłości istnieje upodobanie i skierowanie się ku wielkiej, potężnej Miłości, wyczucie własnej genezy, tęsknota za źródłem pochodzenia.

Wszyscy mówią o miłości, wszyscy pragną miłości. Ale pragnienia wielu są tylko na miarę swoją, ludzką. Nie na miarę pięknotudzką! Ta miara sprowadza się tylko do przyjemności, namiętności, żądzy, użycia, wykorzystania - to nie jest prawdziwa miara człowieka. To jest tylko miara istoty, która zatraciła swe piękno wewnętrzne, zatraciła piękno człowieczeństwa. Wierność zastąpiła chwilowym uniesieniem i cieszy się namiastką.

Bywa, że miłość traci miarę sobie właściwą - miarę Bożą. Staje się wówczas karykaturą prawdziwej miłości, protezą miłości żywej. Czy można odczuć ciepło piasku, chłód rosy, kołysanie fali i miękkość traw, jeśli porusza się na protezach?

Gdy ludzie lekceważą Boga, to tracą smak prawdziwej miłości. Gdy zaś tracą smak prawdziwej miłości, nie znajdują drogi do Boga.

COMMENTS ON THE FINANCIAL REPORT

Thank you to all who did their share to help support St. Stanislaus Parish and its ministries in fiscal year 2001-2002. On first review of our Financial Report, it appears we are holding the line on expenditures. The cost of utilities and plant operation has leveled off after high increases the year before. The income of the church has slipped a little after the gain of two years ago.

The items under "Insurance Claims" and "Capital Disbursements" needs some explanation. The reimbursement check from the insurance company for lightning damage to our west steeple the summer of 2000 was listed as 2000-2001 income. The bulk of the payment for the repairs was not made until 2001-2002 (listed under capital disbursements). In actuality, another $90,000 had been withdrawn from our renovation account to pay for additional tuck pointing work and replacement of lightning rods (which inflated the plant operation expenditures in 2000-2001).

We hoped to eliminate with normal income and bequests the $200,000 we have had to borrow the last two summers for cash flow purposes. We have not been able to do so at the speed we had anticipated.

We seem to be living within our means with a balanced budget each year, but we have had to dip into renovation funds and resort to a "line of credit" loan to meet our semi-monthly payrolls. We hoped to eliminate with normal income and bequests the $200,000 we have had to borrow the last two summers for cash flow purposes. We have not been able to do so at the speed we had anticipated.

With the increase in school tuition and enrollment this year, we anticipate another decrease in the amount of parish assistance to the school. Our Bingo workers, doing their part, are trying to increase their contribution to the school income. The income from the leasing of three classrooms to Headstart will also be helpful.

There are projects that need to be dealt with in the near future — tuck pointing of the church for $67,000, tuck pointing of the boiler chimney for $25,000, erection of an elevator in the social center for at least $200,000 and new lighting in the cafeteria for $26,000 — but we are crossing our fingers that fingers that generous benefactors might be inspired by the Lord to come forward.

In the meantime, to help us over the present shortfall of income, if you have not increased your offertory contributions recently, could you possibly add $1.00 to $5.00 to your weekly contribution? We know that some parishioners are on fixed incomes and cannot afford to increase their contributions to the parish. But those who have been blessed perhaps might consult with the Lord how best to help in the work of the Church. God bless you for your sense of stewardship.

Fr. William

LET THEM PRAY FOR THE DEAD

The month of November is traditionally set aside for the prayerful remembrance of the faithful departed. At Saint Stanislaus Church, we have a special devotion to our loved ones who have been called from this life into eternity. One very special way we bring our beloved deceased to prayer is by sending their names to be inscribed in the Book of Life, from which we pray at the beginning of each Mass in November. The October envelope packet contains a special envelope for sending in names, or you may use your own. People can drop them into the collection basket at Mass, or they may be mailed to the rectory. PLEASE, PLEASE, PLEASE! PRINT YOUR NAMES LEGIBLY. In many cases the names written on the envelopes are almost impossible to read due to poor handwriting! Remember please PRINT.

THE DAD'S CLUB officers and members would like to thank everyone that attended and supported our third annual clambake on September 28. It was a huge success. It is our hope that next year's event will be even bigger and more successful. Currently the club has in (the early stages) plans for a Valentines Dance before Lent in 2003. We will keep you posted. Thank You.

BAPTISM PREPARATION CLASS. The next class will be November 3, 1:00 PM, at Sacred Heart of Jesus, 341-2828.
