WELCOME

St. Stanislaus is reaching out in service to our diverse neighborhood peoples. Please be generous in your support of the many good works of our Parish. St. Stanislaus depends upon the regular support of its membership and the generosity of those who visit here. Please look upon your financial gift or sacrifice as a way of giving praise to God along with the many from earlier generations who have worshiped and prayed here for 129 years.

Remember

The earth prepares to sleep and it covers itself with leaves for warmth, with water for food, with wind for silence, with snow for an extra blanket. Going to sleep, rest from a weary journey in the cycle of life, is the gift of creation. All who have gone before us rest with the earth, in the earth, awaiting the final day of resurrection, a day of joy which is a part of the faith we profess each Sunday in the Creed. Until that day comes, we remember them, we pray for them, we put flowers at their gravesites, we talk to them, reminisce, laugh, cry, and pray again. The memory keeps them alive.

Today I get to celebrate my 50th birthday with all those memories and loved ones who celebrate with me in spirit, from All Saints and Calvary right here in Kraków where the flickering of thousands of candles lights the sky in memory of all those who now rest, where we too will someday rest, where together we will wait for that final glorious union before our Creator and Judge. I will celebrate life present, past and future and thank God for it all: happiness and sadness, joy and sorrow, dreams and reality. I thank all of you at St. Stanislaus for contributing to any one of those for they each help to refine the soul.

I hope many of you will be able to attend next Saturday evening’s concert, Requiem Aeternam, a combination of wonderful readings, prayers and music sure to move you, to allow you to remember, to talk with your loved ones, to participate in beauty of word and song and sound. If you are free, please don’t pass up the opportunity to experience an event as this. Invite your friends as well, anyone who you feel might really benefit from an evening alone with a crowd of lovers and believers.

BE HOLY AS I AM HOLY

During the month of November, it is a venerable Catholic tradition to recall our faithful departed — Saints and Poor Souls alike — invoking their intercession for us and praying on their behalf. At Saint Stanislaus we have a particularly tender devotion of prayerfully reading the names of our beloved dead before each Mass. We also sponsor an annual concert of sacred music (this year on November 9) during which we enjoy the peaceful contemplation of Gregorian chant. Throughout the whole month we are invited to place taper candles into containers in the sanctuary as a prayerful reminder of the presence of the Communion of Saints at the Eucharist. Indeed, in a most special way, those who enjoy the presence of the Lord face to face at the heavenly banquet are very present to us at every celebration of the Eucharist.

All of this serves to remind us that everyone is called to become holy as God is holy. Our baptism demands this of us, and the sacraments empower us for the vital task of sanctification. Those men who are set aside to serve the Church as her priests are called in a special way to bear the Sacred for the sake of others. The scriptures this weekend are potent reminders of what happens when religious leaders forget their essential and primary call to be holy.

Those who are ordained as priests in the Roman Catholic Church share in a great call given by the Lord himself. Those priests who serve in parishes face a special set of challenges in their quest for personal holiness. The work demands of a busy parish community circumscribe his time and impose on his personal living space. The scandalous events of recent months have been even more taxing on priestly identity.

Every two years the Diocese of Cleveland sponsors a two day convocation for the priests who serve here. Last week the convocation welcomed a larger number of priests than had never responded before. The range of topics and presentations invited priests to evaluate our clerical culture and ask what kinds of revisions need to be made. The discussions were actually a very moving experience of faith-sharing among these servants of God.

Of the many concerns these priests raised as challenges to their priestly lives, the vast majority cited losing touch with the spiritual disciplines needed to grow in holiness. Many priests said they didn't have enough time for personal prayer, the study of sacred scripture, and homily preparation. When they reflected on the factors that lead to this situation, almost universally they cite the work loads they need to carry. One young priest was recently assigned to be pastor of a parish with almost three thousand families — more than twice the size of St. Stanislaus — a thousand kids in PSR, and a huge debt to retire. He will be alone, not given an assistant pastor to help him. How do we expect these guys to grow in personal holiness when there is barely enough time to breathe?

This month, when we consider our universal call to holiness, please include a special prayer for priests, so that we, too, may be able to set aside time for the vital task of our own personal growth in the Lord and in the sanctification of the People of God.

Fr. Michael

SPOTKANIA CO PRZYCHODZĄ SAME

Spotkania co przychodzą same tak poza nami że już się nie dźwiszże będzie dalej jak miało być wszystko

*bo Bóg był przedtem zanim zśliśmy razem i można wracać po nitce do kłębka aż do rodziców co też się spotkali najpewniej po raz pierwszy nic nie wiedząc o tym że śmierć nie będzie ważna tak jak to spotkanie choć mogli wtedy zabawnie wyglądać bo wiatr zrywał matce kapelusz słomkowy jakby chciał przed małżeństwem jak kogut uciekać
w wieczór co się zapomniał i stał się zielony radością najbardziej można się przestraszyć*

spotkania co przychodzą same tak dokładnie konieczne że zupełnie czyste wie o tym serce jak skrzydło niezgrabne w yciu co bez śmierci byłoby banałem żeby odejść od siebie też trzeba si spotkać

(ks. Jan Twardowski)

Mimo, iż różnorodność kulturowa kraju w którym żyjemy niekoniecznie skłania nas do listopadowej zadumy, to wcale nie znaczy, że nie wolno nam poddać się choć przez chwilę temu nastrojowi i zastanowić się nad spotkaniami co przychodzą same, a których przecież nie da się w życiu uniknąć.

Dla nas, Polaków, początek listopada to mimo wszystko bardziej czas wspomnienia tych, którzy odeszli niż poddawania się niby radosnemu nastrojowi Halloween. Nie znaczy to, że mamy zabierać dzieciom przebierać za różne stwory i zbierać łakocie. Ale też nie znaczy, że mamy zapomnieć, iż Wszystkich Świętych i Dzień Zaduszny to bratanie się z naszymi bliskimi, którzy są po tamtej stronie, że to czas osvajania się ze śmiercią, która przecież przyjdzie do każdego z nas.

Przekazując najważniejsze wartości młodym pokoleniom, przynajmniej spróbujmy nie zapomnieć, że w naszej europejskiej i chrześcijańskiej kulturze ważne miejsce zajmuje świadomość obecności naszych bliskich już z "tamtej strony".

Mimo wszystko warto przejść z humorystycznego świata duchów i potworów ostatniego dnia października w pełną wiary obecność tych, którzy już od nas odeszli; choć raz w roku odwiedzić całą rodziną cmentarz i wytłumaczyć najmłodszym, że śmierć to nie tragedia i rozpacz, ani tym bardziej żart. Bo śmierć to nieunikniona rzeczywistość, niekoniecznie tragiczna.

Rozmawiając z dziećmi o ich snach, łatwo można spostrzec, ile w ich wyobraźni, podsycanej potworami z gier komputerowych i kreskówek telewizyjnych, kryje się lęk, niepokoju, grozy śmierci i zastraszenia. Potwory tworzą potworny i koszmarny świat.

Ten lęk będzie obcy tylko tym dzieciom, których mądry rodzice oswoją groźbę śmierci z prawdą Jezusa, prawda zmartwychwstania, przezwycięzenia świata zła, szatana i śmierci.

Jednak dzisiaj warto najpierw zapytać siebie: Czy ja jeszcze naprawdę wierzę w to, że Jezus jest Panem życia, że przed Nim śmierć pierzcha z lekiem?

Dzień Zaduszny i cały listopad przypominają nam nieobecnych... Odeszli mniej lub bardziej niespodziewanie, zostawili jednak niezatarty ślad w naszej pamięci. Wspomnijmy ich - nieobecnych tu na ziemi, ale obecnych po drugiej stronie życia.

ks. Jerzy

We bring to loving memory all of the parishioners who have died during the year of our Lord, 2002

We ask that you remember them in your prayers

Z nadzieja polecamy Bogu naszych zmarłych, którzy odeszli z tego świata w tym roku, 2002, obdarzając zmartwychwstania w Chrystusie.

*ETERNAL REST GRANT UNTO THEM, O
LORD, AND LET PERPETUAL LIGHT SHINE UPON THEM!*

SWIETY BOZE, SWIETY MOCNY, SWIETY I NIESMIERTELNY. DZISIAJ, GDY NAM TAK SMUTNO I DUSZNO, UDZIEL NAM TWOJEJ RADY!

LET THEM PRAY FOR THE DEAD. The month of November is traditionally set aside for the prayerful remembrance of the faithful departed. At Saint Stanislaus Church, we have a special devotion to our loved ones who have been called from this life into eternity. One very special way we bring our beloved deceased to prayer is by sending their names to be inscribed in the Book of Life, from which we pray at the beginning of each Mass in November. The October envelope packet contains a special envelope for sending in names, or you may use your own. People can drop them into the collection basket at Mass, or they may be mailed to the rectory. PLEASE, PLEASE, PLEASE! PRINT YOUR NAMES LEGIBLY. In many cases the names written on the envelopes are almost impossible to read due to poor handwriting! Remember please PRINT.

REQUIEM AETERNAM The Schola Cantorum from Cleveland's Church of the Immaculate Conception will present a concert of Sacred Music to commemorate the Feast of All Souls. Gregorian Chant, Renaissance motets and organ works will be featured along with a traditional Compline service for the faithful departed. St. Stanislaus Church, Saturday, November 9, 2002, 7:30 PM.

WYPOMINKI Odwiecznym zwyczajem Kościoła jest szczególna pamięć o zmarłych w miesiącu listopadzie. Zgodnie z wieloletnią tradycją również w tym roku będziemy polecali naszych zmarłych naszym wspólnym modlitwom wypisując ich nazwiska na kartkach tzw. Wypominkach. Nazwiska te zostaną wpisane do tzw. Księgi Życia, z której będziemy czytali te nazwiska przed każdą Mszą św. przez cały listopad. Wielka prośba; wypisujmy nazwiska naszych zmarłych na kopertach lub kartkach bardzo wyraźnie drukowanymi literami, często bowiem jest duży problem z właściwym odczytaniem nazwisk

THE DAD'S CLUB currently is planning a Valentines Dance before Lent in 2003. We will keep you posted. Thank You. Don't forget the Dad's Club Memorial Service at 7:30 PM, this Tuesday. The regular meeting will be held after the service.

GOLDEN AGERS FALL SOCIAL St. Stanislaus Golden Agers will be sponsoring their Fall Social next Sunday at 1:00 PM. It will be a great opportunity to socialize and have fun. Numerous games and other activities will be available and a light lunch will be served. Their regular meeting will be Thursday, Nov. 14th, at 2:00 PM, in the social center. Blood pressure screening will be available.

THANK YOU FOR ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL BLANKET SUNDAY! Our Blanket Sunday Collection generated 47 blankets, 77 sheets and pillowcases, 20 towels and washcloths, 5 bags of miscellaneous items and $276.00 in cash contributions. The donations and proceeds were given to the Catholic Diocese St. Vincent DePaul Society for distribution to the poor. A sincere thank you to all parishioners who assisted through their donations and prayers and to John Skłodowski for his aid in coordinating this event. If you forgot to contribute, there is still time to consider a cash donation.

CENTRAL CATHOLIC NEWS. Cleveland Central Catholic High School is sponsoring a freshman admission test on November 13 at 3:30 PM, December 7 at 9:00 AM, and January 11 at 9:00 AM. No registration is required. There is a $15 fee for the test. Call the Admissions Office at 216-441-8354. Central Catholic is also sponsoring a Robotics Craft Fair on November 9. Tables are available for $25 each. For more information or an application contact Tammy Sparks at 216-441-4700, extension 177.
