WELCOME

St. Stanislaus is reaching out in service to our diverse neighborhood peoples. Please be generous in your support of the many good works of our Parish. St. Stanislaus depends upon the regular support of its membership and the generosity of those who visit here. Please look upon your financial gift or sacrifice as a way of giving praise to God along with the many from earlier generations who have worshiped and prayed here for 129 years.

Rakowicki, Calvary, All Saints, Holy Cross

—All names of cemeteries, all sacred places which collectively hold the physical remains of loved ones who now wait for the final resurrection of their bodies on the last day. I'm sure many of you visit these “waiting rooms” regularly to reminisce and pray. While in Kraków on the feast of All Saints, we were able to experience the wonder of the commemoration of the dead at Rakowicki Cemetery, an experience impossible to forget. There we saw flowers, greens and vigil lights covering practically the entire cemetery. The graves of Matejko, Kossak, Modrzejewka and other artists had hundreds of candles aglow around them. Where we saw the most candles, however, were around those monuments commemorating the martyrs of the nation, those who died in the numerous 20th century slaughters by the murderers Hitler and Stalin as well as evil systems and ideologies. The martyrs of Katyń were particularly noticeable. A friend and former professor of mine, Ks. Zdzisław Peszkowski, with whom I spent some time in Warszawa, himself one of the few survivors of that massacre, presented me with a book of poetry, Krzak Gorejący (The Burning Bush), a compilation of works by many Polish poets, including our Holy Father. The following poem by Wojciech Bąk speaks of the mystery of that death and resurrection on which we contemplate during this special month. If you don't understand Polish, please ask a parishioner who does to translate for you – I'm sure they would be honored.

*Umieram w Tobie – zmartwychwstaję w Tobie!
 I czuję krzyża ciężar, gwoździe w dłoni
 I śmierć na krzyżu – chłód wilgoci w grobie
 I zimno w całym ciele, ciszę w skroni...*

*Umieram w Tobie – zmartwychwstaję w Tobie!
 I czuję żywy oddech i krwi bicie,
 I uwolnione nagle ręce obie,*

*Umieram w Tobie – zmartwychwstaję w Tobie!
 I jasne oczy mam, wyciągam ramię –
 I czuję – opadł grobu wielki kamień...
 I żywy ponad życie w słońcu stoję,
 I ciało me jest wiarą, krew - pokojem,
 Umarłszy w Tobie – zmartwychwstałszy w Tobie!*

DON'T MISS THE WEDDING BANQUET

Did you ever have the experience, while watching the final minutes of an exciting television program, of having your father calling out: "Anyone who wants ice cream get in the car!" As you wished to see the last moments of the show, you no doubt hollered back, "I'll be there in a minute!" A minute or two passed and your father shouted: "We're leaving now!" Still hypnotized by the program, you yell: "I'll be there in a minute!" In a few minutes the program ends and you scramble to the drive way to find the car and your family gone. What a let down! How could your dad not wait for you? You probably were angry with your dad — and, learning a lesson, rarely were late again.

How typical. We have the example of the "foolish" bridesmaids in this weekend's gospel thinking others will always be there to back them up. It hardly occurs to us — as it did to them — that we can run out of time. All of us tend to believe that the world is going to wait for us. We actually believe that the plane is going to wait if we are late to the gate. We expect that the priest will hold up Mass as we traipse into church 10 minutes late. We wonder why our creditors are disturbed when we ignore late payments. Students are shocked to discover that a teacher will not give last minute "extra credit work" to pull a failing grade. They cry when late home works are not accepted.

It never occurs to people who are chronically late that they are being rude and arrogant and self-centered. Being on time is an act of respect. But it is difficult for a person who is the center of their own universe to believe that the world and all its inhabitants will not wait for them.

What is staggering about the parable of the ten bridesmaids is that we are told that God won't wait for us either. He is kind, merciful and patient, but there comes a point when God will wait no longer. When it comes to establishing our relationship with God, we can run out of time. We will be left — alone — standing in the cold.

Matthew's early Christian community was confused over the Second Coming of Christ in glory. Many had believed that this would have occurred in their lifetime. But time had moved on and Jesus had not returned. Many began to fall away from the community or were becoming lax in their practice of the faith. Matthew uses the parable to warn them to "stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

The parable warns us to cease putting off decisions of faith before it is too late. For some, now is the time to regularly attend Mass (not when a son or daughter begins school). For others, now is the time to unburden themselves of sins long ignored (not when the EMS is rushing them to the hospital). For those still on the fence about their commitment to Christ now is the time to strengthen that faith by attending the R.C.I.A. program (not when we feel abandoned by God and the rest of the world). We can go on and on with hundreds of examples of us saying, "I'll be there in a minute." Some day there will be no minute! And our place at the "Wedding Banquet" will be empty.

Fr. William

MĄDROŚĆ i ROZTROPNOŚĆ

Natchniony autor książki Mądrości (dzisiejsze I czytanie) ukazuje pochodzenie i działalność istotnej w życiu człowieka cechy. Mądrość traktuje jako osobę; Pozwala jej przemawiać, udzielać rad i napomnień. Można by nawet porównać ją do pięknej i zalotnej kobiety, na której swoistą kokieteryę nie zareagują tylko głupcy: Latwo ją dostrzegą, którzy ją miłują, i ci ją znajdą, którzy jej szukają, uprzęda bowiem tych, co jej pragną, wpięrow dając się im poznać. Kto dla niej wstanie o świcie, ten się nie natrudzi, znajdzie ją bowiem siedzącą u drzwi swoich. O niej rozmyślać to szczyt roztropności, a kto z jej powodu nie śpi, wnet się trosk pozbędzie: sama bowiem obchodzi i szuka tych, co sa jej godni, objawia się im laskawie na drogach i popiera wszystkie ich zamysły.

Roztropność to praktyczna, życiowa mądrość. Sama abstrakcyjna, teoretyczna, a tym bardziej specjalistyczna wiedza nie jest jeszcze mądrością. Nie potrzeba przeogromnej wiedzy, aby postępować w życiu mądrze, a tym bardziej roztropnie. Mądrość - to zatroskanie o myśl przenikliwą, zdyscyplinowaną, gwarantującą trafność ocen i rozumność decyzji, to umiejętność uprzedzania myślą przyszłych wydarzeń i zachodzących między nimi uwarunkowań; to wreszcie zdolność przewidywania pełnych konsekwencji w podejmowanych działaniach.

Roztropność zaś jest praktyczną mądrością, którą potrafimy wykorzystać w naszych życiowych sytuacjach, którą kierujemy się przy podejmowaniu różnego rodzaju decyzji.

Człowiek mądry nie musi udawać, że wszystko wie, albo na wszystkim się zna. Wcale nie trzeba być uczonym, aby uznać swą niewiedzę. Złem jednak jest świadoma ignorancja. Przed kilkudziesięciami laty ukazała się w Anglii "Encyklopedia ignorancji", dzieło obejmujące prawie pół tysiąca stron, a ukazujące rozmiary współczesnej niewiedzy w dziedzinie nauki. Prawie 60 uczonych, wybitnych specjalistów z zakresu różnych dziedzin poznania, ukazuje w nim na jakie pytania nie potrafi odpowiedzieć współczesna nauka. Czy to uwłacza ludzkości lub czyni głępszym człowieka? Na pewno nie. Nie mamy obowiązku, ani nawet potrzeby, wstydić się naszej teoretycznej niewiedzy w zakresie tego, co nie jest konieczne.

Inaczej z mądrością. Tej mamy obowiązek uczyć się całe życie, szczególnie jeśli chodzi o jej praktyczny wymiar czyli roztropność. Z tego obowiązku nikt i nic nie może nas zwolnić. Zaś na końcu życiowej drogi z niej właśnie trzeba będzie zdać egzamin. Najgorzej, że nie można zdobyć jej w żadnej regularnej szkole, ani na żadnych doraźnych kursach. Szkołą jej jest całe życie człowieka, a poszczególne lekcje to sytuacje i wydarzenia rozgrywające się wokół nas. A ona sama nie jest jak frywolna i przewrotna zalotnica, gdyż łatwo ją dostrzegą, którzy ją miłują i ci ją znajdą, którzy jej szukają.

W Ewangelii Chrystus zwraca naszą uwagę na znaczenie mądrości i roztropności w perspektywie zbawienia. Taką dalekowzroczną roztropnością nacechowane są przypowieści zarówno o pannach (dzisiejsza Ewangelia), jak i o budujących wieżę, a także o królu, który ma wyruszyć na bitwę.

Przejawem najwyższej roztropności jest bycie zawsze przygotowanym na przyjście Pana.

ks. Jerzy

DERRICK ANTHONY ARTINO

In December of 2001, Derrick, without warning, was stricken with Neuroblastoma cancer. After many months in the hospital, he is finally home, hopefully with continued prayers, to stay. His road to recovery is positive, however, the mounting costs of medical care have taken a toll on the family's finances. To assist his parents Frank and Laura Artino with the mounting medical expenses there will be a Rigatoni Dinner Fundraiser and Chinese Auction at the Knights of Columbus Hall located at 10806 Granger Rd. in Garfield Heights on Sunday, November 24th, from 1:00 PM to 4:00 PM. Tickets are $25.00 each. Please contact Derrick's grandparents Henry or Melva Siudowski at 216-271-7546 to purchase dinner tickets or to make a donation to the "Derrick Artino Fund." The family would like to thank everyone for their kindness and support.

LIRA ENSEMBLE

Znany polski zespół pieśni i tańca Lira Ensemble z Chicago zaprezentuje się wraz z orkiestrą w programie "Polsko-Amerykańska Gala Świąteczna" w Social Center przy parafii św. Stanisława w Cleveland w sobotę 23 listopada. Początek o godz. 8:00 wieczorem. Bilety, w cenie $20.00 dla dorosłych oraz $10.00 dla młodzieży idzieci poniżej 16 roku życia, można zamawiać i nabywać w biurze Eugenii Stolarczyk przy 6506 Lansing Ave, tel.: (216) 441-6628 lub bezpośrednio u wykonawców: 1-800-547-5472.

Pastoral Council Meeting October 15, 2002

Worship: Festival weekend activities were positive. Tours of church should take on a more reverent atmosphere with less access to certain areas of the sanctuary and sacristies. A parishioner has volunteered to weld larger donation containers for our candle stands. Traditional tapers, veteran's plaque, & the book of life for remembrance of the deceased will be available through the month of November.

Education: Brainstorming session ideas included—sessions in holiday traditions such as palm weaving or Lenten services; suggestion box with questions about religious tradition or theology; 7th & 8th graders performing a service project for the parish; offer classes in personal finance, job fair, or maintaining a skills' pool within the parish

Evangelization: There are 12 candidates for the RCIA program.

Community Life: Successful Polish Festival! Thanks to all for their help. Blanket Sunday was another success.

Finance Council: Extensive discussion about the status of the grade school and loan amount payments needed until voucher money and profits from Festival are collected. A painter has been hire to paint the church doors and sandstone on the fence pillars and the rectory. Sunday collections are either flat or falling. This is an ongoing concern. Maintenance of the church and the money to pay for such is also a growing concern. Additional fundraising efforts may need to go into effect to help with this issue. Cleveland Central Catholic will close the Scranton Campus and use the Forman campus exclusively starting next school year. They are studying the possibility of leasing some of the convent for office space.

Parish Organizations:

Dad's Club—Clambake was a success; volunteers needed for pre-Lenten Valentine's Day dance; donation request for help in finding a portable PA system for Corpus Christi parade; donation of money for Blanket Sunday, festival raffle tickets, & flowers for Blessed Mother statue in honor of the long-deceased Brother Fidelis.

PTU — Discussion and speaker about fundraising drive; there is a new parent-teacher conference format that involves the students getting more involved in the educational process and work for improvement; Halloween Party scheduled for 10/25.

Golden Agers—Amish country trip successful; Nov. 12 trip to Wheeling Downs is already overbooked.

Youth Group — Planning for Cologne 2005 trip; Christmas fundraiser may include selling Franciscan items; Lil Bros will host Coffee & Donut sale on Oct. 27th.

The next meeting of the Parish Council is on November 19 at 7 p.m. in the Rectory.

ROCZNICA NIEPODLEGŁOŚCI POLSKI

Jak co roku, tak również i w tym roku kiedy zbliża się 11 listopada wszystkim polskim patriotom serce bije trochę mocniej, a myśl biegnie do umiłowanej Ojczyzny. To już 84-ta rocznica niepodległościowych wydarzeń, kiedy po ponad 120-letniej niewoli odzyskaliśmy wolność i suwerenność. Co roku, zarówno organizacje jak i nasze clevelandzkie parafie pamiętają o tej ważnej rocznicy. Obowiązkiem każdego z nas, Polaków, jest nie tylko pamiętać i dziękować Bogu za wolność, ale przekazywać najważniejsze daty i fakty młodym polskim pokoleniom. W minioną sobotę odbyły się rocznicowe uroczystości w gmachu Związku Polaków, dzisiaj trwamy na dziękczynnej modlitwie w intencji Ojczyzny, a "na jutro" niech pozostaje pamięć w naszych sercach o tej, w której "najpiękniejsze są nie tylko kwiaty".
