St. Stanislaus is reaching out in service to our diverse neighborhood peoples. Please be generous in your support of the many good works of our Parish. St. Stanislaus depends upon the regular support of its membership and the generosity of those who visit here. Please look upon your financial gift or sacrifice as a way of giving praise to God along with the many from earlier generations who have worshiped and prayed here for over 135 years.

Mom's Place

She lives in an area people have been known to refer to as 'dangerous.' Her whole family grew up in that area in that very home, but have often decided to move away. Sometimes they come to visit her, more frequently they decide to call or communicate in another fashion....if at all. She doesn't have much in terms of the world but her possessions can have no price put on them. If you visit you might get a scolding or you might get a warm embrace. You might get a meal or you might be asked to do her a favor. She knows you as nobody else in the world does and, in spite of everything you may have done, or everything you fail to do, she still loves you and considers you her child. The kids sometimes give her money to keep the place looking good....giving money is often easier to do than giving time...or oneself.

I could be talking about your own mother or I could be referring to this church or any church in the city. As with this weekend festival, we often see people returning to the 'mother church' where they were baptized to visit. The neighborhood is not what it used to be. Nothing ever is. The welcome includes open arms, some scolding, some food and some reminiscing. As with mom, then it's all left behind while the visitors get on with other 'important' things in life, leaving her in the hands of God for her protection. He is often mom's only constant companion throughout the day. He sits in His house in the tabernacle waiting for a visitor or a favor. Maybe someone will bring some food or want to be fed. They are never turned away. Like mom, the churches which nourished generations of her children are here in the old neighborhood as long as they can survive, even flourish.

This analogy even extends further to the world stage— to the motherland of Christianity, the Holy Land. The land which was the birthplace of Jesus is even seeing bad times. Hardly any Christians remain within her borders. Life for Christians in Israel and Palestine can be truly difficult. Yet, there are those who remain....just like mom. In spite of the constant threat of gunfire and war, poverty and other challenging gifts, there are people who want to remain in the land we consider Holy, in the land where Jesus was born, crucified and rose, in the land which is like no other....our earthly home. People will visit the Holy Land, send money, help out from a distance....just like the plight of some of our churches, and some of our moms.

What can we say or do? We can pray for the moms, our churches, the Holy Land. What else might God want of us? What would your mom want from you? Whatever the answer, you know you are loved.

WHY WE DO WHAT WE DO

This festival weekend we welcome thousands of friends and guests from several states. We share the aromas of our kitchen, the warmth of our embrace, the brightness of our smiles, and a little hop to our polkas! Thank you for making the trip, from near or far, to be with us this weekend.

Our parishioners have been busy for a long time — many using vacation days from work, others taking some extra Motrin to keep the joints from protesting too much — to make sure that your visit is fun for you and productive for our parish. There are many reasons why we do what we do when we do this. We enjoy being with each other. We are proud of our community and our mission, and we want to show off a bit. We know the parish needs the funds to get us through winter.

But most of all, we know that our efforts are not finally about pierogi and polkas, as fun as those are. It is about the mission we are committed to carrying on — giving glory to God, and serving God's people.

Our patron, Saint Stanislaus, gave his life for that mission. Saint Francis of Assisi, whose Order celebrates 800 years this year, gave everything of himself for the sake of the Gospel. Our beloved Pope John Paul II celebrated his first Mass in North America here in 1969, and his mitre stands in silent testimony to his intercession.

Co Bóg złączył...

Czytając dzisiejsza Ewangelie od razu daje się zauważyć, że zdrady małżeńskie i rozwody to nie wynalazek XX w. Były one obecne za czasów Pana Jezusa i wcześniej. Pan Jezus w swoim nauczaniu musiał się zmierzyć także z tym problemem. Zauważmy, że to faryzeusze sprowokowali Pana do odpowiedzi. Ewangelista odnotował: Faryzeusze przystąpili do Jezusa i chcieli Go wystawić na próbę, pytali Go, czy wolno mężowi oddalić żonę? (Mk 10, 2).

Rabini nauczali odwołując się do Mojżesza, że wolno mężczyźnie oddalić żonę, jeśli znajdzie w niej jakąś skazę. Było to powszechne nauczanie. Jednak były różne szkoły interpretowania, co należy rozumieć przez ową „skazę”. Jedni rabini mówili, że to musiałaby być bardzo poważna przyczyna, dla innych takim wystarczającym powodem było np. przypalenie zupy przez żonę, czyli praktycznie każda, nawet błaha przyczyna była wystarczająca do tego, aby dać żonie list rozwodowy.

Rabini nauczając o dopuszczalności rozwodu odwoływali się do nauk Mojżesza, który w Księdze Powtórzonego Prawa pozwolił na rozwód, który zawsze był oddaleniem żony przez męża. Kobieta nie miała takiego prawa. W 24-tym rozdziale Księgi Powtórzonego Prawa czytamy: Jeśli mężczyzna poślubi kobietę i zostanie jej mężem, lecz nie będzie jej darzył życzliwością, gdyż znalazł u niej coś odrażającego, napisze jej list rozwodowy, wręczy go jej, potem odesła ją od siebie. Jeśli ona wyszedłszy z jego domu, pójdzie i zostanie żoną innego, a ten drugi też ją znienawidzi, wręczy jej list rozwodowy i usunie ją z domu, albo jeśli ten drugi maż, który ją poślubił, umrze, nie będzie mógł pierwszym jej mężem, który ją odesłał, wziąć jej powtórnie za żonę jako splugawioną. To bowiem budzi odrazę u Pana, a ty nie możesz dopuścić do takiej nieprawości w kraju, który ci daje w posiadanie Pan, Bóg twój. (Pwt 24, 1-4).

Pan Jezus odpowiadając na pytanie faryzeuszów stwierdza, że „na początku tak nie było”, i że Mojżesz uczynił to koncesję tylko ze względu na „zatwardziałość ich serc”. Pan Jezus odwołuje się do tego, co było na początku, cytując słowa z Księgi Rodzaju: Lecz na początku stworzenia Bóg stworzył ich jako mężczyznę i kobietę: dlatego opuści człowiek ojca swego i matkę i złączy się ze swoją żoną, i będą oboje jednym ciałem. A tak już nie są dwoje, lecz jedno ciało. Co więc Bóg złączył, tego człowiek niech nie rozdziela! (Mk 10, 6-9).

Nauka ta była trudna do zrozumienia i przyjęcia także dla samych Apostołów, którzy spisali słowa Pana. U św. Mateusza czytamy takie słowa uczniów, którzy pytali Pana, a kiedy On odpowiedział, że odpowiedzieli słowami: Jeśli tak ma się sprawa z małżeństwem, to nie warto się żenić (por. Mt 19, 10). Nic więc dziwnego, że i dzisiaj jest wielu takich, którzy odrzucają naukę Pana jako za trudną i niemożliwą do zachowania. A jednak, jest to wymaganie Pana. On nigdy nie wymaga rzeczy niemożliwych. Jeśli wymaga wiele, to tylko dlatego, że daje wiele. On chce, abysmy czynili to, co jest w naszej mocy i prosili o to, co przerasta nasze siły. Modlitwa otwiera nas na Bożą pomoc, a z Bożą pomocą wszystko jest możliwe. Wszystko może w Tym, który mnie umacnia (Flp 4, 13).

YOU ARE THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD!

Millennia ago, Jesus gave this message to his disciples. Decades ago, Pope John Paul II recalled the same message to young people gathered from all over the world. And we need to hear it today ourselves.

What a wonderful metaphor there is for this message from Jesus as we gaze at the beauty of a stained glass window. We see the faces and images of holy people from long ago, and perhaps their faces look back at us. This exchange of glances is lit from beyond by the sun burning millions of miles away. Likewise, it is the light of Christ which shines through us and calls us to be light for others. You and I need to be the stained glass through which others can see Christ!

The stained glass windows at Saint Stanislaus are, for the most part, installed with the original construction of the building starting in 1886. They are imported from Innsbruck, Austria and are currently valued at millions of dollars. It has been more than 25 years since the wooden frames have been painted. Now they need to be truly restored and, in some cases, sections rebuilt.

Won't you help us? It costs almost $7,000 to restore just one large window frame set. Every new contribution to the Church Restoration Fund will be used for the window frames until they are completed. If your family wishes to sponsor an entire window, please contact Fr. Michael about how that gift will be recognized.

HOSPITALITY SUNDAY/HEALTH SUNDAY

The next Hospitality Sunday (formerly known as Donut Sunday) will be on October 25th and will also be a Health Sunday. Flu shots will be available for parishoners who wish to receive them. The flu shot is covered by Medicare Part B, otherwise the cost is $24.99, payable by check. Those covered by Medicare need to bring their Medicare Part B card with them. You must reserve your shot in advance if you wish to receive one. Please call Alice Klafczynski at 216-883-0443 before October 11 to reserve a shot. Patient pre-registration forms will be available at the Manna Table in the vestibule of the church on October 10th and 11th for those who reserve their shot. Please fill these forms out before coming for your shot. There will be more information regarding Health Sunday in next week's Bulletin.

NIEDZIELA GOSCINNOSCI / NIEDZIELA ZDROWIA

Następna Niedziela Goscinnosci (zwana wcześniej Niedziela Paczkowa—Donut Sunday) zaplanowana na 25-go października będzie równocześnie Niedziela Zdrowia (Heath Sudany). W tym tym będzie można zaszczepić się przeciw grypie. Szczepienie pokrywa ubezpieczenie Medicare Part B. Jeśli ktos nie ma tego ubezpieczenia, można zapłacić czekiem w wysokości 24, 99 dol. Ci, którzy mają to w/w ubezpieczenie muszą przynieść kartę. Chetni do szczepienia muszą zarezerwowac szczepionkę dzwoniac do pani Alice Klafczynski na numer 216-883-0443 przed 11 października. Formularz do zarejestrowania się można otrzymać przy stoliku z kartami „Manna” w przedsionku kościoła po Mszach sw. w sobotę wieczorem i niedziele 10-11 października. Proszę wypełnić te formularze przed przyjściem na zastrzyk. Więcej informacji w biuletynie za tydzień.

BAPTISM PREPARATION CLASS

Before a family may schedule the celebration of the Sacrament of Baptism, parents must attend a class to prepare themselves. Slavic Village parishes share this responsibility with each other. The next class will be held at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church on Sunday, November 1, at 1:30 PM. Please call at 341-2734 if you plan to attend.

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT by Rob Jagelewski. In the late 1800's many Polish immigrants came to the Cleveland area to work in the steel mills. The mills first expanded their business by making steel that was used by the United States Army in the Civil War. After the war the mills made steel for the expanding railroad business in the western United States. In 1873 Bishop Richard Gilmour organized the Poles in the southeast section of Cleveland under the patronage of St. Stanislaus. The first two story church was built in 1881 for $4,500. Our present church building was finished in 1891 for the cost of $250,000. In 1906 the Franciscan Friars came to begin their ministry to our parish, which continues to this day. In 1909 a tornado struck the church and damaged the twin front bell towers. The towers were once over 230 feet tall. Through trial and fortitude, our forbearers continued with the St. Stanislaus mission of faith. This mission has changed through the years. Through it all the Catholic faith, Polish traditions, and Franciscan heritage of the people of St. Stanislaus have provided a unique community of belief and a beacon of hope for the city and the neighborhood.
