POST FESTIVAL MEETING

MONDAY, OCTOBER 27th @ 7 PM....We will have our post festival recap and evaluation meeting in the rectory. If you were involved as a head of any sub-committee and responsible for spending and making money, you are seriously invited to attend. We need to critique all elements of the festival from A to Z to enable next year’s to be even better and more profitable. How can we cut or control spending? How can we maximize our energies? How can we make the festival better for our guests as well as for our parish? All reasonable suggestions will be on the table.

The weekend preceding our meeting we will have our ‘post festival pierogi etc...sale’ once again. It’s a chance to stock up for the holidays as well as help us defray some costs. Aside from pierogi (cheese, potato/cheddar, kraut/mushroom, we will have items as bakery (nut, poppyseed, cheese rolls), uncooked noodles, potato pancakes, czarnina, pretzels and some things with which one can potentially wash all this down. We thank, in advance, the N team (Neuman et alia...) who will oversee this event. Please consider visiting the Social Center that weekend after Masses to help the parish and to enjoy some of the remaining goodies with which we are left.

The festival is an annual event meant to celebrate our parish’s Polish heritage while generating income to assist its continued existence. We normally say ‘it’s to help pay the heat bill.’.....SO please be conscious of containing that heat throughout the chilly and colder season. Please do not leave doors wide open etc... It is YOUR money...don’t let it fly out the window while heating Slavic Village! The thermostat actually does work, so if the doors or windows are left ajar, count on the heat to kick in and watch the bill grow accordingly. It’s a simple sign of respect for God’s creation to not waste the natural resources which can provide us comfort. We are all stewards of this earth as well as this church...please remember that it is a shared responsibility of all to upkeep this Shrine and to keep it functioning for future generations to enjoy. Don’t assume someone else will close the door behind you. If you see abuse, please don’t just sit by.....ACT!!! It is YOUR church and YOUR money pays the bills!

In the meantime, please mark your calendars: OCTOBER 27 @ 7 PM.    David Krakowski

Festival Questionnaire

Our fabulous Polish Festival is now over. It is not only a great celebration but our biggest and most important fund raiser. The Festival Committee is now evaluating what worked or didn’t work as we prepare for the 25th anniversary of the Festival next year. We would like to make it the best one ever! An important part of the evaluation is input from you our parishioners.

Enclosed in the bulletin is a Festival questionnaire. Kindly fill it out and return to ushers or place in boxes at the church entrances or mail to the office. If you were unable to attend the Festival, please help us by stating why not on the questionnaire. All information is important. Thank you for your time and efforts.

Faith leads to generous love, not fake facades, hypocrisy

VATICAN CITY (CNS) -- Faith is not about appearances and superficially following the laws with a heart that resists detaching itself from greed and evil, Pope Francis said in a morning homily.

God wants to see a faith that inspires action and is "working in charity," making sacrifices for others, the pope said Oct. 14 during his morning Mass in the Domus Sanctae Marthae where he lives.

"Jesus condemns this cosmetic spirituality -- appearing good, beautiful, but the truth that's inside is a whole other thing," he said, according to Vatican Radio.

"Jesus condemns people with good manners but bad habits, those habits you can't see, but are done on the sly. But the appearance is alright: these people who like to stroll in the square, be seen praying, 'disguise oneself' by seeming a bit weak when fasting," he said.

St. Luke in the day's Gospel reading (11:37-41) details how Jesus admonishes the Pharisee who is shocked when Jesus doesn't observe the prescribed washing ritual before the meal.

Jesus highlights the hypocrisy of a vessel that's clean on the outside, but "inside you are filled with plunder and evil" -- an image similar to one in the Gospel according to St. Matthew that speaks of the "whitewashed tombs" that are beautiful on the outside, but filled with filth and rot, the pope said.

Also St. Paul in his Letter to the Galatians (5:1-6), also read at the Mass, says people "who are trying to be justified by law" are separated from Christ and fallen from grace. That is because the only thing that counts for Jesus is "faith working through love," the pope said, citing St. Paul.

"The law by itself doesn't save," nor does just reciting the Creed -- "it's a motionless faith," he said. Faith must lead to charity and sacrificing for others, the pope said.

The Bible is not speaking only of almsgiving, but about a true detachment "from the dictatorship of money, from the idolatry of cash. All greed distances us from Jesus Christ," he said.

Pope Francis asked people to reflect whether "ours is a cosmetic Christian life of appearances or a Christian life with the faith working in charity?"

Jesus advises everyone to "never blow a horn" about their good deeds and to "never give just the leftovers," but to make a true sacrifice for others, he said.

A Real Life Example of a Legacy Gift
A Bequest from Dorothy and Joe

Dorothy and Joe raised five children in the parish where Joe was baptized. Over the years, they have faithfully supported their parish and have been involved in many aspects of parish life and ministry.

Now retired, the couple decided to look ahead and provide for their children and their church. "Our children tell us to spend our money now. But, when we were ready to set up our will, we left money for our children and wanted also to give generously to our parish. That is the least we can do to help others," Dorothy explained. Dorothy and Joe worked with an attorney to make sure their estate plan was set up to carry out their wishes.

Throughout their lives, including their 50 plus years of marriage, Dorothy and Joe have been giving to others. By leaving a bequest to their parish, they guarantee that their charitable spirit will live on in the parish that they dearly love.

"God has blessed us and we would like to share our blessing with the less fortunate," explains Joe. "We've always felt it was important to support our diocese, as well as our parish."

Our Faithful Legacy website provides you with information for preparing an estate plan. This information is free and can provide you with added knowledge for your individual planning needs. Our website is located at www.myplanwithcatholiccommunity.org/ststanislaus/

Written information may also be obtained by calling Dan Kane, our Parish Business Manager, at (216) 341-9091.

Please remember parishioner Rob Ramser as he is ordained to the diaconate this coming Saturday at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist. Also pray for an increase in vocations as we are all aware of the diminished ranks of available priests in the diocese.
