CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

Catholic Schools Week is a unique celebration at Saint Stanislaus School. Some of my peers ask me, “How do you celebrate Catholic Schools Week when so many of your students are not Catholic?” My goodness, that question always catches me by surprise! Not without a little bit of pride, I run down the list of things we do with our students: weekly Masses, confessions, retreats, veneration of the cross, making sure each child has a rosary, stations of the cross.

But beyond these traditional Catholic practices, we at Saint Stanislaus School live and work one of the largest ministries of our parish, that of Catholic education. Our staff seeks to model Gospel values, and in turn teach our students to do the same. We focus on service and community and Scripture as ways of living our faith, and ask our students to do the same.

We will spend Catholic Schools Week honoring the many pieces of our Catholic education. We will thank parents for sending their children to us; we show appreciation to the crossing guards and bus drivers who keep the children safe; we challenge our bodies in healthy competition; we test Scripture knowledge with trivia games; we spend time with our faith families, increasing the connection between older and younger students; we let our teachers know that we are grateful for their ministry.

During the morning prayer and announcements, the students recite our school pledge that begins with “I know Christ and do my personal best”. We ask them to have a personal relationship with Christ and use the gifts God gave them to reach their potential. If that’s not Catholic education, I don’t know what is.

BREAD AND WINE OFFERINGS FOR 2014

As the year is heading to an end we would like to let our parishioners know that there are a few openings for sponsors of the monthly ‘Bread and Wine’ intention listed in our bulletin. Please contact the rectory to indicate your desire for any specific month for the upcoming year. Your generosity is deeply appreciated! Most immediately, February is still available.
Bishops’ Conferences Say Hope is Essential for Peace in the Holy Land

WASHINGTON—Bishops from Europe, South Africa and North America, gathered in the Holy Land for an annual meeting, said that hope is needed to bring lasting peace to the Holy Land, January 15. Eleven countries made up the 2014 Co-Ordination of Bishops’ Conference in support of the Church in the Holy Land, which issues an annual statement following their meeting.

“We urge public officials to become leaders of hope, not people of obstruction,” the bishops wrote. They cited the words of Pope Francis encouraging peace talks between Israelis and Palestinians and expressed hope that Pope Francis’ visit to the Holy Land in May will promote hope in the region.

Bishop Richard E. Pates of Des Moines, Iowa, chairman of the U.S. bishops’ Committee on International Justice and Peace, represented the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops at the gathering.

The bishops wrote that they were encouraged by the hope of the people they encountered during the time in the Holy Land, including in Gaza, which they called “a man-made disaster.”

The bishops wrote, “As we leave the Holy Land, the bishops and people of the local Church remain in our hearts. They are not alone.”

Performing a varied repertoire of the highest quality including chant, Renaissance polyphony and music from the 18th through the 21st centuries, the dedicated members of the Women's Liturgical Choir offer music for the Vigil Mass in the Basilica of the Sacred Heart, including the Masses following Notre Dame home football games. In addition to the choral responsibilities at the Basilica Vigil Mass, the women sing Sunday Vespers, Advent Lessons and Carols, as well as solemnities, feasts and other special university liturgies. The choir tours each spring. Past tours have included performances in the cathedrals of Arlington, Boston, Chicago, Manchester, Nashville, New York, Oakland, Omaha, Sacramento, San Francisco, St. Louis, Toronto, and Washington, as well as the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, and the Cadet Chapel at the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis.

Where is Elmo (Fr. Joseph)??? In Rzeszów????

...As a result, the living God is replaced by fleeting human idols which offer the intoxication of a flash of freedom, but in the end bring new forms of slavery and death.”

— from homily of Pope Francis at Mass for ‘Evangelium Vitae Day’ June 16, 2013
Pictured above: the Divine Mercy altar in the chapel at Lagiewniki, Poland. Cardinal Dziwisz will dedicate our version of this shrine right here on Thursday, May 15th, 2014, during the first official “third Thursday Mass” commemorating the newly canonized, St. John Paul II.

Would you like to help make this dream come true in our Shrine Church? Perhaps pledge a certain amount to be paid over a few years if it is difficult to donate all at once? Please pray over it. We want this new shrine to be another jewel in the crown of our parish, something which will inspire the thousands of guests who visit here each year.

DON’T FORGET YOUR GIFT CARDS...they help fund our parish ministries! And they make people HAPPY!

Thanks to Felicia Greczanik, Al Mosinski, Barbara Sokolowski and Gloria Wasielewski for their commitment to selling gift cards after mass.

A special thanks to all who purchased cards and made it possible for us to give our parish $4,244.74. A great example of stewardship by all.

God bless you! Frank Greczanik

Yes, the breakfast, lunch and obiad (supper) of champions still beckons us from the freezers of the social center. Please consider taking home a lonely pack of these little pillows of love. If you bought one of our Hershey Kisses Bears you might even feed some to your new adoptee. Supplies are limited...so don’t wait...You snooze, you loose!!!
Działanie świadka Ewangelii

By jednak prawda, dobro i piękno mogły zagościć między ludźmi, potrzebni są autentyczni świadkowie Ewangelii. Zostali oni wybrani spośród wielu innych przez samego Pana. Do nich to nad Jeziorem Galilejskim powiedział: „Pójdźcie za Mną, a uczynię was rybakami ludzi”. Na odpowiedź nie musiał długo czekać, ponieważ „natychmiast zostawili sieci i poszli za Nim”.

Zadanie świadczenia o miłości spoczywa również na barkach każdego chrześcijanina. Wezwanie Pana powołującego apostołów odnosi się do każdego z nas. Wszyscy bowiem jesteśmy zobowiązani do życia w prawdzie, nierozdzielnie złączonej z miłością. Ta z kolei zawiera w sobie nie tylko słowa, ale przede wszystkim czyny. Święty Paweł postrzegając służbę miłości przez przyzna krzyża, piętnuje podziały oraz akcentuje konieczność zgody.

Tań więc był sobie człowiek tonący w długach do tego stopnia, że nawet królewski skarbiec by go nie uratował. Człowiek ów zatem zaczął udawać wiarąta. Oczywiście zdołał wyprowadzić w pole lekarzy, którym przecież i tak trudno jest odróżnić człowieka obłąkanego od zdrowego. Jego udawanie było jednak tak doskonale, że przekonał o swoim szaleństwie nawet najbardziej podejrzliwych wierzycieli.

Z własnego doświadczenia wiemy, jak trudno jest żyć w ciemnościach. Wystarczy, że dotykają nas problemy związane z właściwym funkcjonowaniem elektryczności, a natychmiast zauważamy, że świat jest niesamowicie czarny. WOLNE INTENCJE MSZALNE W DNI POWSZEDNIE

Wspaniałą tradycją w Kościele katolickim jest pamiętać o tych, których kochamy – zarówno żyjących jak i zmarłych – w szczególny sposób podczas Mszy św. Intencja mszalna wymieniana w niniejszym biuletynie jest szczególną intencją, w której modli się celebrans w czasie Mszy św. Pragniemy poinformować, że jest wcięte w najpóźniejszych dniach.
