...And I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. AMEN!

To those of you who might not have noticed, those are the closing words of our creed. These cross my mind each time I manage to find some time to visit my family members and friends at either Calvary or All Saints—both beautiful waiting rooms for the big reunion to come. This past Sunday I seemed to be the only ‘living’ being at Calvary until I was surprised to find a family of deer (mom, dad and two children) frolicking amidst the headstones in the older sections. (two pictured here to the right)

The ‘waiting rooms’ are really beautiful places to visit and there is no doubt we will join them someday.

For now, whenever I’m there to visit, I locate all those I knew and spend some time speaking with them, asking them to help me here in the land of the living. There at the cemeteries they are surrounding by peaceful verdant pastures...just like the ones mentioned in psalm 23... “The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. In verdant pastures he gives me repose...” These green rooms are a place where we keep our loved ones safe while we busy ourselves with our necessary activities and pursuits. They get to rest, but they also don’t mind being asked to help. Their ‘first class relics’ are interred in an earthly shrine beneath the canopies of living trees and sunlight, rain and snow. They await the final resurrection and the life of the world to come patiently.

Here in our Shrine Church we have many first and second class relics as well. Most recently, with the addition of the first class relic of St. John Paul II, many people, parishioners and pilgrims, regularly have knelt before the small shrine which houses his relics, and have asked him to intercede for them. The small private notes left behind have already filled the basket we set aside to hold them! There are easily over a thousand petitions and letters to St. John Paul, all placed at the foot of the altar each third Thursday of every month during the 7 PM Mass offered in thanksgiving for his sainthood, pleading for his continued intercession.

The church has numerous relics placed throughout the building, all real saints just waiting to help us if we ask. The Saint Stanislaus and St. John Paul are the most obvious. Then the relics of Sts. Francis, Anthony and Clare are also in the shrine area. The relic of St. Therese is in the altar very close to her statue in the baptistry. Then there is the myriad of saints in the place of honor within the high altar. They all share in the waiting game: waiting for us to ask them for their intercession while we wait together for the final resurrection of all the dead on the last day. The time we all spend waiting can be put to good use if we so choose. The deceased can help us as well as we can pray for them and for their intercession. When we all meet again it will be glorious...the veil will be lifted and all tears will be forever be banished as we share the glory of the resurrection won for us by Jesus.

We pray for the soul of [name]
Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord,
And may perpetual light shine upon him.

INFANTS / TODDLERS OF SLAVIC VILLAGE
"Congratulations" to all the parishioners of the 5:00 mass last Saturday who participated in the "bountiful" veggie basket drawing! Together we were able to provide $132 of needed food items to the Infants/Toddlers of Slavic Village! Winner of the basket was our choir member Sharon Kalinowski! But in reality, we were all winners....we helped put food on the tables of hungry children! Thank you all for your kindness and participation...a job well done! God is love!
Drawing on Aug.31st gives you a chance to win local wines...please donate needed food items and enter the drawing with each donation! Baskets are in the church vestibule...please help fill them!

REMEMBER YOUR GIFT CARDS!

You are going to buy gas (GAS USA / bookie). You are going to shop at a grocery store (Happy Louie’s Stop ‘n Shop). You are going to get a bite to eat (Pani Krasnoludka’s zupa gzybowa from deep in the forest). You are going to shop for clothing (Duzy Buty, Tiffany’s Disco Boots Store and More). Or shopping for a child or young adult for the new school year (Target, K Mart, Walmart) So why not buy our cards and benefit the parish at no additional cost? You’re going to spend the money anyway! So why not help us out along the way?

FESTIVAL COMMITTEE MEETING

Our Festival 2014 meeting is next week, MONDAY, August 26 @ 7 PM in the rectory. If you have a major area of responsibility during the festival, please plan to attend. We’ve tried to implement some suggestions from the past and hope to continue moving ahead in a grand way once again. Thanks to all the people behind the scenes who have been preparing things for the past few months, including the team who mailed out the raffle tickets over the past two weeks. Please do your best to sell your tickets as they provide a huge part of the income from this event. Plus...you could be a big winner yourself!!! Nothing ventured—nothing gained!

FESTIVAL SPONSORS

DEADLINE AUGUST 24th!!!!

So, having received the bulletin inserts last week regarding the securing of festival sponsors, how is your search going? The more sponsors we have, the more funds we get to keep from all the work done at the festival. The less sponsors we find, the less money we get to keep to help pay our heat bill.

Personal contacts are the way to go. Know someone who has a business and would benefit from advertising in our booklet? Hit them up!! Your personal approach will work better than any mailing or anonymous contact.

If we could increase the sponsorships for that weekend we could keep all of the $100,000 we normally gross at the end of those busy three days. Without the sponsors, just subtract over half of that amount from our coffers. The sponsors are VERY IMPORTANT!

So, PLEASE try to get us a sponsor or two or three!! It will make a huge difference if EVERYONE helps! AND, both the sponsor and the church will benefit in the end. Other parishes do this, so why can’t we? Times are changing and we must pursue all avenues available to keep our parish both vibrant and solvent.

Deadline: Aug 24 for sponsorships!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Have you asked ANYONE to sponsor yet?????

BASKETS R US

Summer is flying by and we are hoping to receive another great response from our parishioners and friends for baskets to fill up the shelves of our two basket booths at the festival. Please try to limit the amount in each basket to $25 unless you plan to make up something VERY special to be raffled off separately at the Platinum Raffle Booth outside the upstairs bar in the social Center.

Prizes and baskets at that booth are all at least in the $100 plus range....so we need to keep these apart from the regular ones.

Last year we were blessed to have donations of a nice flat screen TV as well as other ‘recent’ electronic inventions. Let’s hope we can top those this year to attract the guests who are interested in helping us out by partaking in that special raffle.
Hymn na wejście (refren)

17. VIII. 2104

Na Ofiarowanie: (refren)

Ogrzej mi serce w nocy, ogrzej mi mysli w dzien,
Niech echo Twoich krokow rankiem napelni sien.

Zamien smutki w kolede, zdejmijz oczu cien. Ogrzej nam serca w nocy, ogrzej nam mysli w dzien.

Hymn na komunie:

1) Witaj pokarmie, w ktorym niemieszony nieba I ziemie Tworca jest zamkniony.
Witaj, napoju zupełnie gaszacy umysl pragniacy.

2) Witaj, krynico, wszystkiego dobrego, gdy bowiem w sobie masz Boga samego,
Znasz ludziom wszystkie Jego wszechmocnoci, niesiesz godnosci.

3) Witaj, z niebiosow manno padajaca, rozkoszny w sercu naszym smak czyniaca.
Wszystko na swiecie Co jedno smakuje, w tym sie znajduje.

4) Witaj, rozkoszne z ogrodu rajskiego drzewo, owocu pelne zywiacego.
Kto cie skosztuje, smierci sie nie boi, choc nad nim stoi.

5) Witaj, jedyna serc ludzkich radosci, witaj, strapionych wszelka laskawosci.
Ciebie dzis moje Izy slodkie szukaja, k’Tobie wolaja.

Na Zakonczenie: #343, Czesc Maryji! (w mszaliku)

WSPANIALEJ NIEDZIELI! I RADOSNEGO TYGODNIA!!!!!!
