(Vatican Radio) The compass of the Christian directs him to follow Christ crucified, not a disincarnate god, but God made flesh, Who bears in Himself the wounds of our brothers. That was the message of Pope Francis at the morning Mass at the Casa Santa Marta on Thursday.

The invitation to be converted resounds strongly at the beginning of Lent. And the liturgy of the day, Pope Francis said, places this exhortation in the context of three realities: man, God, and the journey. The reality of man is that of choosing between good and evil: God has made us free, the choice is ours," the Pope said, but He does not leave it to us alone; rather, he points out the path of goodness with the Commandments. Then there is the reality of God: "for the disciples, it was difficult to understand" the path of the Cross of Jesus. "Because God has taken all of human reality, except sin. There is no God without Christ. A God without Christ, 'disincarnate,' is a god that is not real":

"The reality of God is God made Christ, for us. To save us. And when we distance ourselves from this, from this reality, and we distance ourselves from the Cross of Christ, from the truth of the wounds of the Lord, we distance ourselves also from love, from the charity [carità] of God, from salvation and going along an ideological street from God, far away: [This] is not God who came to us and made Himself close to us to save us, and died for us. This [God made Christ for us, to save us] is the reality of God."

The Pope cited the dialogue between an agnostic and a believer, recorded by a French writer of the last century:

"The agnostic of good will asked the believer, 'But how can I... for me, the problem is how Christ is God: I can't understand this. How is Christ God?' And the believer responded, 'Eh, for me this is not a problem. The problem would be if God would not have been made Christ.' This is the reality of God: God made Christ, God made flesh; and this is the foundation of the works of mercy. The wounds of our brothers are the wounds of Christ, they are the wounds of God, because God is made Christ. The second reality. We cannot live Lent without this reality. We must convert, not to an abstract God, but to the concrete God who is made Christ."

Finally, there is the third reality, that of the journey. Jesus says, "If anyone wishes to come after Me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow Me.":

"The reality of the journey is that of Christ: following Christ, doing the will of the Father, as He did, taking up the daily crosses and denying oneself in order to follow Christ. Not doing what I want, but what Jesus wants; following Jesus. And He says that on this street we lose our life, in order to gain it back later; it is a continual loss of life, loss of doing what I want, loss of comforts, being always on the path of Jesus who was at the service of others, [who was] was in adoration of God. That is the right path."

"The only sure path," Pope Francis concluded, "is following Christ crucified, the scandal of the Cross. And these three realities – man, God, and the journey – "are the compass of the Christian, which will not allow us to take the wrong path.

Infants/Toddlers of Slavic Village

Join the "March" against hunger...help alleviate the pain children right here in Slavic Village (our own neighborhood) fight everyday. Place a box of cereal, a canned good, stew or corned beef in the baskets located in the church vestibule. Every little bit helps! Together it adds up to make a meal, feeds a family, gives hope, spreads God's love. Become a part of the "March"...your kindness means so much to those who have so little. A great way to start your Lenten season. Blessings to June Zeszut for all her contributions...once again, she is February's Manna Gift Card winner! Thank you!

MALLEY'S EASTER CANDY SALE
Benefit Organ Restoration Fund

Back by popular demand is the Malley's Easter candy sale to benefit the organ restoration fund. Last year we profited $650. Our goal is $1,000 this year.

Orders can be placed in person or online. Please send the on-line ordering link to all your friends and family who are non-parishioners or out of town, as well as posting it on your Facebook account. Everybody loves Malley's chocolates and they will thank you for informing them.

This will be the last fund raiser for the organ, so enjoy your chocolates and the beautiful sounds of our iconic organ to be played on Easter.

To order in person:

- Fill out the order form enclosed in the bulletin.
- Order forms and payments will be accepted in the church foyer after each Mass or in the rectory during normal business hours
- Advance payment is required-cash or check only (make checks payable to St. Stanislaus Church)
- Orders must be received by Sunday, March 19.
- Orders may be picked up after Masses April 1 or 2 in the church foyer.
- Additional forms are available in the foyer.

To order online:

- Order may be placed online to be shipped directly from Malley's to any location in the U.S.A.
- www.malleys.com/fundraising/campaign/st-stanislaus-church
- Freight will be charged on orders less than $65; free shipping on orders of $65 or more.

Deadline for internet orders is Monday, April 10

2017 FOUR EAGLE
HONOREE,
JUDGE RAYMOND PIANKA

May 5th, 2017 is the date set for the induction of honoree (posthumous) Judge Raymond Pianka to the elite club of Four Eagle Award recipients, an honor bestowed by the Shrine Church of St. Stanislaus upon individuals of merit in the parish and/or the neighborhood and the greater City of Cleveland and beyond. The award will be presented to members of the recently departed Judge's family at the event. Tickets for this occasion will be available in mid-March. The dinner annually raises funds for St. Stanislaus through the donations made toward the tickets as well as the 'silent auctioning' of several donated items throughout the evening. Details will be forthcoming as available.

Those of you who knew Judge Pianka are familiar with his generosity and integrity. He was a valuable asset to our community and to many organizations of Cleveland's Polonia. Honest and sincere, he gained the friendship and respect of all with whom he came in contact over his years of service. Please join us in honoring this wonderful man on Friday, May 5th.

Slavic Village Residents: SAVE THE DATE

Kuszenie Jezusa przez szatana objawia nam prawdę, że pokusa nie jest związana ze słabością, z grzechem, lecz przede wszystkim z mocą. W rzeczywistości bowiem nie jesteśmy kuszeni do tego, czego nie potrafimy robić, lecz do tego co leży w zasięgu naszych możliwości. Im większy jest w nas potencjał możliwości tym większa jest pokusa. Doświadczenie kuszenia nie dotyczy jak potocznie by się mogło wydawać – tego, co słabe w człowieku, lecz tego, co w nim mocne. Fakt, że Jezus jest bez grzechu oraz obecność Ducha Świętego, który prowadzi Jezusa przez pustynię nie może więc wykluczać doświadczenia pokusy. Bezgrzeszność i asystencja Ducha Świętego są bowiem znakami mocy Bożej, która spotyka się z ostrym atakiem szatana. Kuszenie Jezusa przez diabła stanowi wzór, w którym można zobaczyć schematy pokus nękających współczesnego człowieka.

Pokusa zaspokojenia wszystkich pragnień i potrzeb materialnych prowadzi do sytuacji, w której człowiekowi wydaje się, że jest samowystarczalny. Nie potrzebny jest mu Bóg, bo sam jest w stanie zaspokoić wszystkie swoje potrzeby. Pokusa spektakularnego cudu, jakiegoś szczególnego znaku ze strony Boga pozostaje wciąż aktualna w naszych czasach. Człowiek współczesny w swej płytkiej wierze często powtarza zdanie – Boże uczyni to i tamto, wtedy uwierzę. Pokusa łatwego zdobycia władzy i wszelkich potrzebnych mocy bez wkraczania w rzeczywistość krzyża stanowi kolejną iluzję współczesnego człowieka, który tak bardzo chętnie ucieka od trudności, od odpowiedzialności, od cierpienia. Przez pryzmat tej pokusy człowiek pragnie być zawsze silnym, zdrowym i bogatym.

Jezus zwycięża pokusy oferowane mu przez diabła, gdyż czerpie swą moc od Ojca. Poprzez swoją postawę i zwycięstwo nad wszelką pokusą pokazuje, że prawdziwie jest Synem Bożym, który przychodzi zniweczyć diabła i jego dzieła. Wielką bronią jest dla Niego Słowo Boże, w świetle którego potrafi rozpoznać iluzję i pozorny blask propozycji oferowanych przez diabła.
