Two weeks ago we saw the brief meeting between our Holy Father Pope Francis and President Donald Trump. One of the gifts presented by the pope to our president was a copy of his encyclical “EVANGELII GAUDIUM”, “The Joy of the Gospel”. The president promised to read it. The following is the conclusion of the summary published by the Vatican.

In relation to the challenges of the contemporary world, the Pope denounces the current economic system as “unjust at its root”. “Such an economy kills” because the law of “the survival of the fittest” prevails. The current culture of the “disposable” has created “something new”: “the excluded are not the ‘exploited’ but the outcast, the ‘leftovers’”. “A new tyranny is thus born, invisible and often virtual”, of an “autonomy of the market” in which “financial speculation” and “widespread corruption” and “self-serving tax-evasion reign”. He also denounces “attacks on religious freedom” and the “new persecutions directed against Christians. ... In many places the problem is more that of widespread indifference and relativism”. The family, the Pope continues, “is experiencing a profound cultural crisis”. Reiterating the indispensable contribution of marriage to society”, he underlines that “the individualism of our postmodern and globalized era favours a lifestyle which ... distorts family bonds”.

He re-emphasizes “the profound connection between evangelization and human advancement” and the right of Pastors “to offer opinions on all that affects people’s lives”. “No one can demand that religion should be relegated to the inner sanctum of personal life, without a right to offer an opinion on events affecting society”. He quotes John Paul II, who said that the Church “cannot and must not remain on the sidelines in the fight for justice”. “For the Church, the option for the poor is primarily a theological category” rather than a sociological one. “This is why I want a Church that is poor and for the poor. They have much to teach us”. “As long as the problems of the poor are not radically resolved ... no solution will be found for this world’s problems”. “Politics, although often denigrated”, he affirms, “remains a lofty vocation and one of the highest forms of charity”. I beg the Lord togrant us more politicians who are genuinely disturbed by ... the lives of the poor!” He adds an admonition: “Any Church community”, if it believes it can forget about the poor, runs the risk of “breaking down”.

The Pope urges care for the weakest members of society: “the homeless, the addicted, refugees, indigenous peoples, the elderly who are increasingly isolated and abandoned” and migrants, for whom the Pope exhorts “a generous openness”. He speaks about the victims of trafficking and new forms of slavery: “This infamous network of crime is now well established in our cities, and many people have blood on their hands as a result of their comfortable and silent complicity”. “Doubly poor are those women who endure situations of exclusion, mistreatment and violence”. “Among the vulnerable for whom the Church wishes to care with particular love and concern are unborn children, the most defenceless and innocent among us. Nowadays efforts are made to deny them their human dignity”. “The Church cannot be expected to change her position on this question ... it is not ‘progressive’ to try to resolve problems by eliminating a human life”. The Pope makes an appeal for respect for all creation: we “are called to watch over and protect the fragile world in which we live”.

With regard to the theme of peace, the Pope affirms that “a prophetic voice must be raised” against attempts at false reconciliation to “silence or appease” the poor, while others “refuse to renounce their privileges”. For the construction of a society “in peace, justice and fraternity” he indicates four principles: “Time is greater than space” means working “slowly but surely, without being obsessed with immediate results”, “Unity prevails over conflict” means “a diversified and life-giving unity”. “Realities are more important than ideas means avoiding “reducing politics or faith to rhetoric”. “The whole is greater than the part” means bringing together “globalization and localization”.

Pope Francis requests: Take the Youth Survey!

The Catholic bishops of the world are planning to meet in October 2018 for the 15th Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops. The theme of this gathering is “Youth, Faith and Vocational Discrimination.” In preparation for this major synod on youth, Pope Francis wants to gather input from the Catholic faithful. Consequently, the Diocese of Cleveland has made available a survey questionnaire to gather information on the current state of the young in our diocese that will be included as part of the pre-synod discernment document. The survey can be found on the diocesan website home page, www.dioceseofcleveland.org. All are invited and encouraged to participate by taking this short survey. The bishops of the United States pray that the results of this survey will help them more fully understand the experience of young people in our Church and in our country -- their hopes, dreams, fears and struggles -- so that the synod may bear fruit in offering more insight and direction to our ministry with young people.

Remember these happy faces? They all served in some capacity here at our parish within the past 20 years. They are currently in chapter .

TRÓJCA ŚwięTA – DOGMAT NASZEJ WIARY

Musimy zrozumieć jedno – Wiara w Boga w Trójcy Świętej Jedynego jest podstawą nauki o posłannictwie Chrystusa i dokonanym przez Niego Odkupieniu. I to jest zasadnicza i podstawowa dla nas wszystkich prawda naszej religii katolickiej. Dogmat o Trójcy Przenajświętszej to przede wszystkim dogmat o Bogu żywym, którego życie polega na wzajemnym posiadaniu, na wzajemnym oddaniu i doskonałej wymianie. Przez łaskę uświęcającą bierzemy udział w życiu trzech Osób Boskich, poznaną Ojca przez Syna w Miłości Ducha Świętego.

Nam, wiernym, tym którzy nie mają wykształcenia teologicznego, czasami trudno pojąć tę prawdę, że w jednej Osobie wyznajemy Boga Ojca, Syna i Ducha Świętego, mimo iż mamy świadomość, że to jest najdoskonalsza społeczność życia Ojca, Syna i Ducha Świętego. Bóg jest doskonali i nie ma w Nim żadnego braku. W owej jedności osób jest Miłością, i to Miłość bezinteresowną. Podobnie, wspólnotą zbudowaną na fundamencie miłości i jedności powinna być chrześcijańska rodzina. I wreszcie to, co najważniejsze – Trójca Święta uczy miłości praktycznej i osobowej. To tyle, reszta pozostaje nam objąć wiarą i zrozumieniem poprzez Miłość do Boga.

Boże, w Trójcy Świętej Jedyny, daj nam Prawdę i Miłość, oświeć nasze umysły, abyśmy mogli trwać i poznawać to, co dajesz nam jako Twoim dzieciom. Święty, Święty, Święty. W imię Ojca i Syna, i Ducha Świętego
