July Bread and Wine Dedication
  In memory of
  Walter & Eva Woznak
VATICAN CITY (CNS) -- Slowing down, being generous and fighting for peace are part of Pope Francis' secret recipe for happiness. In an interview published in part in the Argentine weekly "Viva" July 27, the pope listed his

Top 10 tips for bringing greater joy to one's life:

1. "Live and let live." Everyone should be guided by this principle, he said, which has a similar expression in Rome with the saying, "Move forward and let others do the same."
2. "Be giving of yourself to others." People need to be open and generous toward others, he said, because "if you withdraw into yourself, you run the risk of becoming egocentric. And stagnant water becomes putrid."
3. "Proceed calmly" in life. The pope, who used to teach high school literature, used an image from an Argentine novel by Ricardo Guiraldes, in which the protagonist -- gaucho Don Segundo Sombra -- looks back on how he lived his life.
"He says that in his youth he was a stream full of rocks that he carried with him; as an adult, a rushing river; and in old age, he was still moving, but slowly, like a pool" of water, the pope said. He said he likes this latter image of a pool of water -- to have "the ability to move with kindness and humility, a calmness in life."
4. "A healthy sense of leisure." The pleasures of art, literature and playing together with children have been lost, he said.
"Consumerism has brought us anxiety" and stress, causing people to lose a "healthy culture of leisure." Their time is "swallowed up" so people can't share it with anyone. Even though many parents work long hours, they must set aside time to play with their children; work schedules make it "complicated, but you must do it," he said.
Families must also turn off the TV when they sit down to eat because, even though television is useful for keeping up with the news, having it on during mealtime "doesn't let you communicate" with each other, the pope said.
5. Sundays should be holidays. Workers should have Sundays off because "Sunday is for family," he said.
6. Find innovative ways to create dignified jobs for young people. "We need to be creative with young people. If they have no opportunities they will get into drugs" and be more vulnerable to suicide, he said.
"It's not enough to give them food," he said. "Dignity is given to you when you can bring food home" from one's own labor.
7. Respect and take care of nature. Environmental degradation "is one of the biggest challenges we have," he said. "I think a question that we're not asking ourselves is: 'Isn't humanity committing suicide with this indiscriminate and tyrannical use of nature?'"
8. Stop being negative. "Needed to talk badly about others indicates low self-esteem. That means, 'I feel so low that instead of picking myself up I have to cut others down,'" the pope said. "Letting go of negative things quickly is healthy."
9. Don't proselytize; respect others' beliefs. "We can inspire others through witness so that one grows together in communicating. But the worst thing of all is religious proselytism, which paralyzes: 'I am talking with you in order to persuade you,' No. Each person dialogues, starting with his and her own identity. The church grows by attraction, not proselytizing," the pope said.
10. Work for peace. "We are living in a time of many wars," he said, and "the call for peace must be shouted. Peace sometimes gives the impression of being quiet, but it is never quiet, peace is always proactive" and dynamic.
School Corner

When the new Superintendent of schools reaches out to you with an invitation to attend the USCCB Joy of Gospel Convocation, of course you are going to say yes. Even if you don’t quite know what the convocation is all about. Even as you wonder, “Why me?” Even as perhaps you think to yourself that the dates coincide with the only week during the summer when the school shuts down, and there is a list of household projects waiting to be done! But then you arrive in Orlando, amongst 3,000 other Catholics, your spirit yells, “Yes!”

Participating in the USCCB’s convocation was a privilege, one for which I am very grateful. Whether it was a plenary session with all attendees listening to Bishop Barron speak to the culture of today’s Catholics, or a breakout session addressing the real challenges of racism, there was not a moment where I did not feel the presence of my faith. Where else could you get in an elevator and be in the company of a Cardinal, two Archbishops, and a nun?

While I am still spiritually unpacking the four days spent in Orlando, there are some definite take-aways that will assist our mission (both from the school and the church’s viewpoint). I’ll use the phrases accompaniment and encounter, relationship building, and defining missionary discipleship. I will borrow the phrase “Our budget is our theology”.

And as we welcome Bishop Perez to Cleveland, the USCCB delegation from Cleveland is looking forward to sharing our joy at being a part of the convocation and seeking his guidance in bringing forth the message from Saint Francis. I am happy to share my spiritual journey with the Saint Stanislaus community in the hopes that as I strengthen my own sense of missionary discipleship, I can be an instrument for others to do the same.

GOT CHOCOLATE?

Just when you thought heaven would have to wait!! Well, it’s gotten a little closer. As of this weekend Malley’s has introduced a new solid chocolate bar to our little stand in the vestibule...the CLE bar! Give it a try!!! You’ll devour it! (first hand experience).
FESTIVAL BASKETS

It’s never too early to begin preparing for our annual parish festival. In fact, planning and preparations go on practically throughout the entire year! So, here’s the appeal for gift baskets you hear each year! We need many of these (in the price range of $25 to $35) to populate our two basket booths (up and down in the Social Center). So if you are out and about and have a few good ideas for these baskets, don’t hesitate to put a few of them together and drop them off at the church anytime you are able to, as long as you do so before September 24th. This will allow us to make sure we have the adequate number of baskets needed. To fill our shelves. The baskets can have a special theme, or contain candy or food (food that can be stored safely in advance). An Autumn basket or a Christmas Basket! Be creative! We are also asking for some more expensive items to place on our ‘Chinese Auction’ table as well (worth at least $100 each). If you can help, it will be greatly appreciated! Bóg zapłać!

CHRISTMAS IN JULY RAFFLE

Check out the organ raffle for July ... A Christmas in July gift basket. The organ work is beginning to slowly wind down. The new efficient motor/blower is in. Next the new floor. Now the largest pipes are being fixed. By mid-Autumn, we’ll be all done!! Thanks to all who buy the raffle tickets, candy, cookbooks etc... Without these little ‘fundraisers’ we never would have reached our goal!

SZKAPLERZ I FATIMA

16 lipca przypada w liturgii Kościoła wspomnienie Najświętszej Maryi Panny z Góry Karmel. Dzień ten nazywany jest często dniem Matki Bożej Szkaplerznej, gdyż bezpośrednio wiąże się z nabożeństwem szkaplerza. Historia szkaplerza karmelitańskiego sięga XII w. Duchowi synowie proroka Eliasza prowadzili życie modlitwy na Górze Karmel w Palestynie. Nazywali się Braćmi Najświętszej Maryi Panny z Góry Karmel. Z powodu prześladowań przenieśli się do Europy. Kościół uznał ich regulę życia i dał prawny początek Zakonowi Karmelitów, który promieniował przykładem świętości w nowym dla siebie środowisku, ale nie uniknął też określonych trudności. Wtedy odznaczający się świętością generał zakonu, angielski karmelita św. Szymon Stock, zmotywował swoich braci i zawierząc się Maryi, prosił Ją o pomoc. Jak podają kroniki, gdy modlił się słowami antyfony Flos Carmeli (Kwiecie Karmelu) w nocy z 15 na 16 lipca 1251 r. ukazała mu się Maryja w otoczonym aniołów i wskazując na szkaplerz, powiedziała: "Przyjmię, najmilszy synu, Szkaplerz twego zakonu jako znak mego braterstwa, przywilej dla ciebie i wszystkich karmelitów. Kto w nim umrze, nie zazna ognia piekłego. Oto znak zbawienia, ratunek w niebezpieczeństwach, przymierze pokoju i wiecznego zobowiązania". Nabożeństwo szkaplerzne, praktykowane początkowo tylko we wspólnotach karmelitańskich, bardzo szybko rozpowszechniło się wśród ludzi świeckich i duchowieństwa. Do nabożeństwa szkaplerznie przywianego są przywileje uznane przez Kościół jako objawione przez Maryję:
- noszącym szkaplerz Maryja zapewniła opiekę w trudach i niebezpieczeństwach życia zarówno względem duszy, jak i ciała;
- w znaku szkaplerza Maryja obiecała szczęśliwą śmierć i zachowanie od wiecznego potępienia;
- każdy, kto nosi szkaplerz, jest złączony z Zakonem Karmelitańskim i ma udział w jego duchowych dobrach za życia i po śmierci (objęty jest intencjami Mszy św., komunii św., umartwień, postów, modlitw itp.).

Z końcem XV w. do powyższych łask dołączone tzw. przywileje sobotni oparty na objawieniu, jakie miał mieć papież Jan XXII. Maryja obiecała przez niego, że każdy noszący szkaplerz i zachowujący czystość według swego stanu zostanie uwolniony z czyśćca w pierwszą sobotę po śmierci.

Czy Szkaplerz ma jakiś związek z Fatimą?
- Dlaczego zdaniem siostry Matka Boska ukazała się w tej ostatniej scenie, trzymając Szkaplerz? - zapytano Łucję w 1950 r.
- Dlatego, że Matka Boża chce, abyśmy wszyscy nosili Szkaplerz - odpowiedziała Łucja. "I to właśnie dlatego Różańiec i Szkaplerz, dwa najbardziej uprzywilejowane sakramentalia maryjne, nabierają dziś jeszcze większego uniwersalnego znaczenia niż kiedykolwiek w historii".

Modlitwa do Matki Bożej Szkaplerznej
O najwspanialsza Królowo nieba i ziemi!
Orędowiczko Szkaplerza świętego!
Matko Boga! Oto ja, Twoje dziecko, wznoszę do Ciebie błagalne ręce i z głębi serca wołam do Ciebie:
Królowo Szkaplerza, ratuj mnie, bo w Tobie cała moja nadzieja.
