A Note from the Principal

Congratulations to the following St. James students:

Parker B.

Riley B.

Kiara B.

Sienna W.

Leo W.

Alexandra B.

Josephine B.

Kate W.

Mikayla M.

They submitted writing pieces and were accepted into the 3rd annual StoryBee Show.

These students will be reading their stories aloud-on a stage-in a local theatre. Some of the stories are light, some are quite poignant, but all are excellent.

Next week is Holy Week, the most sacred time in the liturgical year of the Catholic Church. During the season of Lent our students have been encouraged to use their rice bowls to collect their small sacrifices and prayers to better prepare for the Easter season.

At next Tuesday's all school liturgy these rice bowls will be part of the liturgy's Offertory procession. Therefore, our students should bring their rice bowls to school next Monday.

In celebration of the Easter season there are no classes on Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Monday. Yesterday evening was the occasion for the initial presentation of our school's Drama Club. All of the hard work on the part of the students was evident in their fine performance. A special "thank you" is extended to PreK 3 teacher Jane Hilton for all of her effort in getting the children ready for their big night.

Also, please note the large number of students highlighted in this week's school newsletter who participated in the Chess Club and the Read, Write and Run program. Both of these activities, engaging so many of our students, were only possible because of dedicated faculty volunteers, Mrs. Tara Murphey and Ms. Kay Nicely, and Mr. Richard Keenoy, who has supervised our students for so many years.

A special thanks is also extended to those parent chaperones who attended yesterday evening's baseball game with our school safety patrol members. The good weather and Cardinal victory combined to make this a very enjoyable night at the ball park.

Weekly Prayer

A Friend of the Cross is one chosen by God, from among thousands who live only according to their reason and senses, to be wholly divine, raised above mere reason and completely opposed to material things, living in the light of pure faith, and inspired by a deep love of the Cross.

Memory Book

The End-of-the-Year Committee is designing a memory book for each St. James student. One of the unique features is the ability to customize 2 pages of the book with pictures and memories specific to your family.
