Deacon Tim Sullivan

THE BIGNESS OF JESUS

Sometimes it's hard to wrap our minds around the identity of Jesus. We're getting ready to celebrate His birth as an infant, and just a few weeks ago we were celebrating the Solemnity of Jesus as King of the Universe.

It seems so much easier to warm up to the infant Jesus born in a manger. His innocence, simplicity and helplessness are so endearing.

On the other hand, we have the description of Jesus from the Letter to the Colossians. There, we read that "In Jesus were created all things in heaven and on earth...all things were created through him and for him...that in all things he himself might be preeminent."

In the Gospel of John, we're told that Jesus, the Word, "was in the beginning with God...All things came to be through him, and without him nothing came to be...What came to be through him was life, and this life was the light of the human race."

From the Book of Revelation, we learn that the Word will lead the armies of heaven, bringing down "the fury and wrath of God the almighty."

So, we are comforted by the gentleness of the baby Jesus, who even as an adult was loving, forgiving and kind. Yet, this same Jesus can be fearsome and all-powerful.

"And no one can say 'Jesus is Lord,' except by the Holy Spirit." 1 Corinthians 12:3
