THE HARDEST PART OF CHRISTIAN LIFE

We just concluded Holy Week, which ends with the joyous celebration of Easter. The resurrection of Jesus gives us the promise that we, too, can share in His resurrection and eternal life.

Holy Week also challenges us to confront the most difficult aspect of being Christian, which is accepting that, like Jesus, we will also suffer in our lives here on earth. Sometimes, even the most innocent of us will suffer, which can be extremely difficult to see in a positive light.

Jesus tells us that to gain our lives we must lose them, to pick up our crosses and follow Him. How can we understand this when the circumstances of suffering can be so mysterious?

The Bible gives us an answer in Chapter 12 of the Letter to the Hebrews. There we are told that everyone God loves, He disciplines. "At the time, all discipline seems a cause not for joy but for pain, yet later it brings the peaceful fruit of righteousness for those who are trained by it." God disciplines us "for our benefit, in order that we may share His holiness."

No matter how much our faith is challenged, we must never think that a difficult moment or situation is without grace. As God told St. Paul in 2 Corinthians 12, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." This leads Paul to be content with hardships for the sake of Christ, "for when I am weak, then I am strong."

By uniting our suffering with that of Jesus, we share in bringing the redemptive love of Jesus to others. Our lives can reveal His saving power.
