FAREWELL LETTER FROM SEMINARIAN NOAH DREW

Dear St. Bernard's Parishioners,

Time is kind of a funny thing, isn't it? Sometimes it flies, and sometimes stands still. I've certainly experienced both this summer at St. Bernard's! Some days were so full of wonderful events—Masses, Legion of Mary meetings, dinners with parishioners—that the day seemed to breeze by. Time also seemed to stand still, however, in the beautiful conversations I've shared with so many of you. It seemed like we even stepped outside of time to share with each other about the Lord's work in our lives and the unique ways He is calling us to serve Him.

I'm grateful that the Lord allowed me to be at this parish for a time. Sadly, that time has come to its close. This weekend is my last at St. Bernard's. Now, I say goodbye with a heart full of gratitude. You have all opened your hearts and your homes to me and allowed me to be part of your parish family, and I can't thank you enough for that. You've inspired me by your dedication to our Lord and by the strength of the love that holds this faith community together.

Please know of my continued prayers for you all! Please keep me in your prayers as I return to Conception for my senior year of college seminary. I've still got a while left on my journey to priesthood, but this summer has helped me to remember that the hard classes and occasional homesickness are definitely worth a lifetime of service to the Lord and to His people!

Your summer seminarian,

Noah Drew

NEWCOMER WELCOME LUNCHEON

If you are new to the parish within the last 6 months, you are invited to join us for a Newcomer Welcome Luncheon next Sunday, August 3rd, immediately after the 11:15 am Mass. Come enjoy a light luncheon while meeting members of the clergy and staff. Then after lunch, join us for a church tour to get to know our campus. We even have a gift for you! Kindly RSVP to parishlife@stbernardstulsa.org if you plan to attend. We'll see you there!

BERNARDFEST 2025!

Bernardfest is our annual parish celebration in honor of our patron saint, St. Bernard of Clairvaux. This year our celebration has a brand new look! Join us on Aug. 23rd from 9:00-11:00 am for Family Fest. The morning event is specifically for children and their families. We will have a broad range of fun activities including face painting, water activities, breakfast foods, coffee cart, and more. Later that evening, adults are invited to join us for Bernard's Bash from 6:00-9:00 pm. This event includes a BBQ dinner, live band, and cash bar. Childcare is offered, but rsvp is required as space is limited. You may purchase tickets online through our website or by cash or check at the Parish Office.

We need many volunteers to make this event a success! If you are interested in helping out this year, please email Hannah at parishlife@stbernardstulsa.org.

PARISH LIFE UPDATE — WELCOME, MARY ISBELL!

It has been an absolute joy and honor to serve as Parish Life Director over the past three years. I am beyond grateful for the opportunity to work with such outstanding volunteers. My appreciation and love for the liturgy and the seasons of the Church has deepened through serving in this role. I am thrilled to share that while I am leaving the Parish Life Office, I am moving to a new position on Staff, as Coordinator of Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is a religious education program for children based on scripture, liturgy, and the educational philosophy of Maria Montessori. Look for more information over the coming year about this beautiful program for children ages 3-6.

I am thrilled to share that we have a new Parish Life Director, Mary Isbell. Mary comes to us with rich experience after serving in similar roles at several parishes and religious organizations. Please join me in extending a warm welcome to her and say "hi" when you see her at Mass or in the Parish Office.

I pray God continues to bless each of you.
With Gratitude,
Hannah Schilling
