IF ONE PART SUFFERS

A key belief of Christians is that, while there are many parts in the Body of Christ, the Church, we are all one body. So we have an obligation to know where parts of the body are suffering. We adults should be monitoring the extent of this suffering, sharing it with our children, and responding to the suffering in some way.

Not long ago, I saw a friend of mine, a priest from Nigeria who is serving the Diocese of Tulsa. I commented on the awful persecution of Christians in his home country. He looked at me and replied, "Does anybody care?" It doesn't seem that many do.

It is estimated that there are 360 million Christians worldwide who suffer oppression and discrimination daily. Christians suffer extreme persecution in 13 countries (including Nigeria) and very high persecution in another 37 countries. In Nigeria, for example, more than 50,000 Christians have been killed in the last 14 years. Villages and churches have been burned down, and over four million Christians displaced.

The Knights of Columbus have established a Christian Refugee Relief Fund in order to provide humanitarian relief to persecuted Christians around the world and especially in Iraq, Syria and surrounding countries. Another charity I recommend for this is Barnabas Aid.

"There should be no division in the body, so that the parts may have the same concern for one another. If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it." 1 Corinthians 12:25-26
