INCREASE IN NEW CATHOLICS

Here's a report on how many new Catholics have joined the Catholic Church at St. Bernard's in 2025.

For many years, most of the people that participated in what was called RCIA were spouses of Catholics who had promised their Catholic spouse that they would take instructions for joining the Catholic Church. I would guess that 15 would be a good estimate of the size of the classes in those days. The classes ran from early September to Easter. We now have newer, shorter options.

In 2025, we have had 47 adults complete what is now called the OCIA (the word "Rite" changed to "Order"). We like to call it the Catholic Journey. Starting around the middle of the year, the pace of people letting us know they were interested in joining the Church increased even more than it had the previous 3 years. We will start a new group in January that promises to be the biggest ever.

As I have mentioned in the past, these adults are attracted to the structure and tradition of the Catholic Church. They share a perception that the focus in recent decades on individual freedom without any boundaries has created a culture of alienation, loneliness and a rapid increase in mental health issues.

Our new group begins meeting on Tuesday, January 6th, at 6:00 pm in Room G-8, the top floor at St. Bernard's.
All newcomers are welcome.
