COMING SOON—A NEW GREAT AMERICAN SAINT

Beatification of Archbishop Fulton Sheen is approved and will take place sometime this year. His beatification will have a substantial impact on the Church, as it will no doubt lead to many more Catholics and even non-Catholics learning about him and being inspired by his very fruitful life and ministry.

Millions of people in the United States and around the world knew of Archbishop Sheen from his Catholic Hour radio program, which aired from 1930 to 1952. He then shifted to his television show, Life Is Worth Living, in 1952. This became one of the most popular television shows in the United States. He was a prolific author, writing 66 books and 62 booklets and pamphlets. He had a syndicated newspaper column for over 30 years. He was featured on the cover of Time Magazine, TV Guide, Colliers and Look. In 1955, his programs were reaching over 5 million households every week.

Sheen had an amazing gift for explaining everything from religion and politics to science and mathematics. He had a talent for explaining complicated issues in very understandable terms. His style was often theatrical. Even non-Catholics considered him one of the greatest orators of his time.

If you are not familiar with Archbishop Sheen, check out one of the many videos that feature him. Read one of his books that has a subject of particular interest to you. You will be very impressed by how beautifully he expresses himself.
