All families are invited to join us for a special evening of Adoration on Tuesday, May 26th. This special time is designed especially for little ones, featuring songs, prayer tools, and mediation, to help introduce families to the beauty of Eucharistic Adoration. While children are always welcome to our chapel during Adoration, we know it can feel like a big step for young hearts. That's why we are setting aside this time for our families to come together and share in this meaningful experience. Afterwards, join us for popsicles and fellowship!

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD REGISTRATION

WHAT WE LEAVE BEHIND

A friend's grandfather just passed away. He was a farmer in Iowa, running a farm that had been in the family for several generations. There was tension in the family, because one of the grandfather's sons had chosen not to live and work on the farm as an adult. His father and two brothers were very resentful of this decision. From the grandfather's perspective, the family had always been a farming family and would always be so. That was the identity of the family. In a sense, the farm they worked had been entrusted to them by their forebears. Leaving the farm was a breach of that trust.

One of the responsibilities of parents is to establish a family identity, to define what it means to be a member of their family. That identity can include aspects of work, belief and behavior. It can include elements passed down over time and new elements introduced by the parents. Some elements can be permanent. Others are more flexible. Parents have to decide where and when there will be flexibility.

One of the newer issues related to family identity is the expectation of a college education. It has been a common expectation in many families that the children would go to college. With the high cost of a college education and the more limited employment opportunities for college graduates, the decision to attend college is no longer so automatic. Just one of many identity issues for parents and children to resolve.

WELCOME, KIM!

Welcome to our new Director of Business and Facility, Kim McClanahan!

When you see her around the parish, please congratulate her! Here is more about Kim in her own words.

"My name is Kim

McClanahan, and I recently relocated to Tulsa with my husband at the end of 2024 after joining the Catholic Church at Easter earlier that year. As a convert, I have a special heart for those coming into the faith and in general for serving others through parish life and community.

I was raised in Missouri in a large family with a great deal of love, faith, and strong family values, which helped shape who I am today and the importance I place on community, service, and loving others as Christ loves us.

Professionally, my background is in project coordination, operations, and administrative leadership within the construction service industry, where I spent years supporting teams, managing projects and installations, improving processes, and helping people stay connected and organized. I am excited to bring those skills into service of the Church in my role at St. Bernard's.

This year my husband and I are celebrating 8 years of marriage, and we have an adult daughter. Outside of work and parish life, I enjoy reading, writing, learning new things, spending time with friends and family, playing board games, and exploring Tulsa. I look forward to getting to know the parish community and serving wherever I am called."
