WHAT CATHOLICS NEED TO KNOW

Catholics need to know how and why our Christian faith is different from that of other Christians. You would think this would be taught in Catholic schools and parish religious education classes, but it's not typically covered.

It should be. Not just so that we can defend our beliefs, but also because the issues themselves are very important. A list of issues that we need to be familiar with includes the authority of the pope and the Church, salvation, unity, the role of Mary, the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, and confessing sins to a priest. On all of these issues, the Bible supports the Catholic understanding. Every Catholic should have a working knowledge of the Bible passages on which the Catholic Church relies.

So, I'm going to start addressing each of these issues in what I hope will be concise and helpful articles. I encourage all of you to keep up with them, make copies and share them with others. I've been presenting these issues for 7 years with adults who wish to enter the Catholic Church.

My goal in sharing the Catholic faith with these adults is not to do a massive download of what Catholics do and what we believe. There is a lot of information, but the goal is to help them see that they can have the deepest, richest relationship with Jesus through the resources of the Catholic Church. I want you to see that as well.

"Do not conform yourselves to this age but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and pleasing and perfect." Romans 12:2

WELCOME, COURTNEY!

Welcome to our new Coordinator of Childcare Ministry, Courtney Smith! When you see her around the parish, please congratulate her! Here is more about Courtney in her own words.

"Hi! I'm Courtney, and I am honored to join the parish as the Childhood Ministry Coordinator. Although my educational background is in horticulture and landscape architecture, I have always felt a deep calling to nurture children and help guide them in their walk with the Lord.

My greatest hope is that every child knows they are deeply loved by Jesus, created with purpose, and called to be a light in this world. I am passionate about creating a welcoming, joyful environment where children can grow in faith, confidence, and kindness.

I am a native Tulsan who loves to travel, and wander through museums or get lost in a good book. I am so grateful that God has led me here, and I look forward to getting to know all of you and growing together in faith and community."

—Courtney Smith
