A MESSAGE FROM FR. JAY NUTHULAPATI UN MENSAJE DEL P. JAY NUTHULAPATI

A Grateful Tribute to Our Volunteers

Dear Parish Family,

What a joy it was to gather for our Volunteer Appreciation Dinner! Your presence, your laughter, and your unwavering commitment to our parish filled the evening with grace and gratitude. You are the living stones of our church, the hands and feet of Christ in Whiting.

St. Paul reminds us, "Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord" (1 Corinthians 12:4–5). Each of you brings a unique gift, and together you form a radiant mosaic of faith, hope, and love.

St. Teresa of Calcutta once said, "Not all of us can do great things. But we can do small things with great love." Your small acts—setting up chairs, preparing meals, welcoming guests—are soaked in love and shine with the light of Christ.

As your priest, I am humbled and honored to serve alongside you. Your zeal gives me fresh strength to minister with joy and a renewed spirit. Let us continue to build up our parish, especially by nurturing our younger families and inviting them into the heart of Christ.

May the Sacred Heart of Jesus hold us close, and may we echo the words of St. Ignatius of Loyola: "Go forth and set the world on fire." Let our parish burn brightly with the fire of love, unity, and service. May God strengthen us, and may the Sacred Heart of Jesus hold each of us tenderly in His heart.

With deep gratitude,

Rev. Jay Nuthulapati

Un sincero homenaje a nuestros voluntarios

Querida familia parroquial:

¡Qué alegría fue reunirnos para nuestra cena de agradecimiento a los voluntarios! Su presencia, sus risas y su inquebrantable compromiso con nuestra parroquia llenaron la velada de gracia y gratitud. Ustedes son los pilares de nuestra iglesia, las manos y los pies de Cristo en Whiting.

San Pablo nos recuerda: «Ahora bien, hay diversidad de dones, pero el Espíritu es el mismo; y hay diversidad de ministerios, pero el Señor es el mismo» (1 Corintios 12:4-5). Cada uno de ustedes aporta un don único, y juntos forman un radiante mosaico de fe, esperanza y amor.

Santa Teresa de Calcuta dijo: «No todos podemos hacer grandes cosas, pero podemos hacer pequeñas cosas con gran amor». Sus pequeños actos —colocar las sillas, preparar la comida, dar la bienvenida a los invitados— están impregnados de amor y resplandecen con la luz de Cristo.

Como su sacerdote, me siento honrado y agradecido de servir junto a ustedes. Su celo me da nuevas fuerzas para ministrar con alegría y un espíritu renovado. Sigamos fortaleciendo nuestra parroquia, especialmente acompañando a las familias jóvenes e invitándolas al corazón de Cristo.

Que el Sagrado Corazón de Jesús nos abrace, y que hagamos eco de las palabras de San Ignacio de Loyola: «Salgan y prended fuego al mundo». Que nuestra parroquia arda con la llama del amor, la unidad y el servicio. Que Dios nos fortalezca y que el Sagrado Corazón de Jesús nos acoja a cada uno con ternura en su corazón.

Con profunda gratitud,

Rev. Jay Nuthulapati
