

CUSTODY POLICY

Holy Family Parish School is finding an increasing number of families experiencing transitions in parental custodial relationships. In addition, laws governing divorce settlements and custody have been recently changed. For this reason, we find it necessary to clarify and reiterate the usual procedures followed by the administration and faculty in dealing with parents in such situations. A copy of the policy in its entirety is available online or by contacting the school office.