What is Totus Tuus?

Totus Tuus is a week-long summer parish youth mission. It gives students entering grades 1-12 an incredible week of fun, faith, and fellowship. The phrase Totus Tuus (pronounced like 'toe-tus two-us') is Latin. It means, "Totally Yours" and it was St. John Paul II's motto. He gave his whole life to Jesus through Mary.

Where is it? When is it?

Totus Tuus will be held at St. Paul Parish in Combined Locks from July 8 – July 13. Those in grades 1-6 this fall participate from 9:00 AM – 2:30 PM Monday – Friday; those in grades 7-12 come from 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM Sunday – Thursday.

How do I register?

Go to <http://www.stpaulcl.com/Giving> and click on Totus Tuus. Or submit a paper form and payment to St. Paul Parish: 410 Wallace Street, Combined Locks, WI 54113.

Interested in Helping?

Please consider signing up to donate a meal or assist in a classroom for 1 or more days. The amount of help available will determine the number of participants we can successfully accommodate. Thank you for considering!

In order to have a safe & successful week, we need at least 1 adult & 1 high school teen to assist as classroom aides.

If you are interested in volunteering for one or more days, please contact Erin Wachtendonk to coordinate:
