SOME NOTES from FR. JOE:

1) WHAT is “MINDFULNESS”? Some people have different names for this...meditation, contemplation, etc. This FALL, Fr. Joe will teach a class on “MINDFULNESS”. More info in September. Classes will be at Swoboda Center.

2) SAT, 10/24 at HAWTHORNE...new, improved menu...basket/purse raffles (the only people who can WIN are those who come to the race!)...special sports’ jerseys to be raffled. $40/person (same price as last several years!); $45/door.

3) RELIC of ST. MARIA GORETTI coming to the United States. St. Maria Goretti was a young girl in Italy. In 1902 when she was 12 years old, a man wanted to rape her. She refused, and he stabbed her to death. She chose to die rather than to give up her virginity. She forgave her murderer. She is the patron saint of teenage girls.

The Catholic Office of the Deaf will arrange bus trips to see the relics of her body, one day in CHICAGO, one day in NORTHLAKE, one day in ORLAND PARK. Masses, 7pm, INTERPRETED! These dates will be in OCTOBER. Keep reading this Church paper each week and our Catholic Office of the Deaf website for more details.

4) SAT, 9/6, 11am-6pm: Black Deaf Advocates PICNIC (all are welcome!). Dan Ryan Woods #6, 87th & Western, CHGO. www.cldba.weebly.com

5) SAT, 9/12, 10am-dusk: Chicagoland Deaf Seniors Picnic, Ned Brown Forest Preserve #29, Golf Rd. near I-53. Esroz3@aol.com/224-520-9725vp, kiadavis74@comcast.net/847-665-0172vp.

6) SUN, 9/13, 11am-dusk: Irish Heritage/Harvest Day (FREE). Wonderful for families. Gaelic Park, 6119 W. 147th St., OAK FOREST, IL. www.chicagogaelicpark.org

7) We will post in the Church paper and also the website, the Pope’s schedule in the USA. We will announce which channels will have captioning, especially for the Pope’s Masses.

8) DCYIA www.dcyia.net is the organization which works with deaf young people across Mexico, Central & South America. Fr. Joe serves on the Board of Directors. DCYIA is hoping to sponsor a pilgrimage to see the Pope in the Vatican, Rome, Italy, JUNE 2018. If you want to go with Fr. Joe, then visit Southern Italy & Sicily, start saving your money NOW. If you put aside $100/month starting NOW, you will have the money you will need for the trip in 2018.

9) THANK YOU for all those who donated backpacks & school supplies for children. CCAC (Chicago Children’s Advocacy Center) helps over 2,000 children year who are victims of sexual abuse in Chicago. Think about this...

...75% of sexual abuse happens among family members, and often in the child’s home;

...children know who their abuser is 98% of the time;

...children who are deaf and/or disabled suffer sexual/physical abuse three-times (3x) more often than hearing and non-disabled children.
