

TRINITY SUNDAY

First Reading

EXODUS 34:4-6, 8-9

A Reading from the Scroll of Exodus

Early in the morning Moses went up on the mountain with two flat stones. He went up because the Lord told him. The Lord came down in a cloud and Moses stood with the Lord.

Moses said the name, “Lord”. The Lord passed in front of Moses and said, “I, the Lord God, am full of mercy. I don’t get angry fast. My love is great.

At once Moses bowed down to the ground and worshipped. He said, “Lord, if you are really happy with me, I ask you to come with us. These people are stubborn but forgive our evil ways and our sins and accept us as your own people.”

Psalm

DANIEL 3:52,53,54,55,5656

RESPONSE: Glory and praise to you forever.

Blessed are you, Lord God of our fathers.
Blessed is your holy name.

RESPONSE:

Blessed are you in the temple of your holy glory.
Blessed are you in your kingdom.

RESPONSE:

Blessed are you looking down from heaven.
Blessed is your holy name.

Trinity Sunday

A Reading from the Second Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters, We want you to be happy. Try to be perfect. Help one another. Stay together. Live in peace and the love of God and peace will be with you.

Every time you meet people, give each other a kiss of peace.

All people of God welcome you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia---Alleluia---Alleluia

Glory to the Father, to the son and to the Holy Spirit. To God that was, that is and that will come.

Alleluia---Alleluia---Alleluia

Gospel

JOHN 3:16-18

A Reading from the Holy Gospel of John

God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son so that everyone believing in him will have eternal life.

God did not send his Son into the world to judge. He sent him to save the people. Anyone believes in the Son will not be judged. But those not believing will be judged.
