My good sisters and brothers,

I want you to know I am delighted with the bishop's choice of priests to follow me here at Our Lady of Grace. Fr. Adam Maus is a wonderful pastor. He is a huge man who is very gentle and kind. He is a big teddy bear who is very approachable and personable and I am sure you will love him very much. Deacon Jacob Degele will be ordained in June in Bismarck with three other men. He is humble like Fr. Maus and very personable. I understand he has a quick wit and speaks Spanish. He will be teaching one class at Bishop Ryan. God is so good in answering our prayers and I give thanks and praise to Him for this.

Love and hugs, Fr. Bruce

Vocation Views "We proclaim Christ crucified...the power and wisdom of God." Could Jesus be calling you to proclaim His life, death and resurrection as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life?

Coffee and Donuts: After the 9:00 AM Masses on Wednesdays during Lent, coffee and donuts will be served in our Gathering Space. Plan to join us.

In sympathy we remember Ken Wright, father of Justin Zayas; Rod Olson, father of Tamie (James) Dunn; and Fr. Ben Bachmeier, uncle of Denise (Mark) Larson and Debby (Glen) Mosser.

We pray for their families and friends who grieve their loss. May the fullness of life be theirs. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Stewardship of Time, Talent and Treasure

Did you know... that our parishioners give many hours of their time and talents to help our parish each week? There is a place for you to help; to use your talents to fulfill the mission of Christ within our parish. Please prayerfully consider what ministry you are being called to assist. Lector, choir, usher, baker, cook, cleaning, visiting the sick, helping in a classroom or office, or perhaps praying for the needs of our parishioners. Whatever God is calling you to do, we have a place for you. You are a piece of a puzzle and without you, we are not complete. Contact the parish office to sign up!

How many “gods” do you put before God? “Idols” do not always take the shape of physical things, things we can touch and feel. Those are easy to recognize. Many times they take the form of things we cannot touch and are much harder to spot like pride, power, ego, time, comfort or health. Pray for God's help to prune our vices and to grow in virtue.

“Lifting up our brothers and sisters in need”

This weekend is our 32nd Annual African Mission Appeal collection. As Catholics, we all have a shared responsibility to support our church’s work. This can be done through your prayers and generous support of our African Mission Team. Please be as generous as you can in supporting the important work of Fr. David Morman, as he ministers on our behalf to our brothers and sisters in Kisii, Kenya, East Africa. You are also encouraged to follow our missionary in action at:

<https://www.facebook.com/BismarckCatholicMission>
If you are interested in serving as a member of the Diocesan Mission Team or would like more information, please write to: Chuck Reichert, Diocese of Bismarck, PO Box 1137, Bismarck, ND 58502-1137.

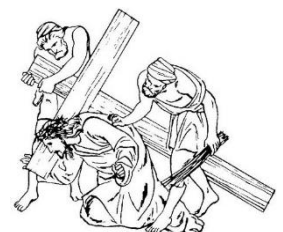

Ministry Schedule:

I am working on the ministry schedule that will begin in May and run through October. If there are any changes to your current information (change of Mass time, vacation dates, etc.) please let me know by April 12. If you no longer want to continue in your ministry or would like to change ministries, now is the time to make that change. Please call me at the parish office.

Be Not Afraid Do not look forward to the challenges and chances of this life in fear; rather look to them with full hope that, as they arise, God will deliver you out of them. He has kept you up to now, do but hold fast to His dear hand, and he will lead you safely through all things; and, when you cannot stand, he will carry you in his arms. Do not look forward to what may happen tomorrow; the same everlasting Father who cares for you today will take care of you tomorrow and every day. Either he will shield you from suffering, or he will give you unfailing strength to bear it. Be at peace then, and put aside all anxious thoughts and imaginations. Saint Francis de Sales

The Saints Encourage Us to Go to Adoration

“Whenever I go to the chapel, I put myself in the presence of our good Lord, and I say to him, ‘Lord, I am here. Tell me what you would have me to do’ . . . And then, I tell God everything that is in my heart. I tell him about my pains and my joys, and then I listen. If you listen, God will also speak to you, for with the good Lord, you have to both speak and listen. God always speaks to you when you approach him plainly and simply.” – St. Catherine Labouré

Our Lady of Grace welcomes you on Thursdays from 9:45 AM to Fridays at 7:00 AM for Eucharistic Adoration.

Next Week’s Gospel: John 3:14-21
Fourth Sunday of Lent – March 14, 2021

Gospel Reflection

In teaching Nicodemus, Jesus uses a familiar passage from the Old Testament about Moses (see Numbers 21:4–9). When Moses lifted up a bronze snake in the desert for all to see, those who had been bitten by snakes were healed. Jesus says that he too must be lifted up so that all might have eternal life through him. He will be lifted up on the cross. But he will also be lifted up in his Resurrection and in his Ascension to the Father. Whoever looks at him in faith will receive eternal life.

Followers of Jesus recognize him as the light that came into the world. They live truthfully in the light, unlike those who choose the darkness and do evil deeds.

Discussion Questions for Gospel

Who do you know or know of who is "rich in mercy"? How does he or she show mercy? Recall a time when you acted mercifully by forgiving someone who had seriously offended you, or by helping someone who was in need. What difference did your actions make?
