Good People of Our Lady of Grace,

Praised be Jesus Christ! Fr. Maus and I wish to first of all thank you for your very warm welcome during our first week as your priests. I am overjoyed to have this good parish of ours be my first priestly assignment! Please pray for us, that we might be good and holy shepherds for you.

The Gospel this weekend recounts Jesus sending off the 12 Apostles to preach repentance, drive out demons, and heal the sick; what a huge task! Even more striking is that Our Lord instructs them "to take nothing for the journey...no food, no sack, no money in their belts." Why would Jesus commission them with such a huge task but tell them to go fairly unprepared with material possessions? He wanted them to not trust in their own strengths or possessions when they chose to follow him, but to depend more and more on the help of his grace. May we too, as disciples of Christ, learn to surrender our gifts, strengths, and possessions to him so that we might better equip ourselves with his strength.

Know of Fr. Maus' and my daily prayers for all of you!

Fr. Jacob Degele

Please submit information for next week's bulletin by 1:00 PM on Tuesday. Thank you.

He sent them out two by two...

Mass Intentions:

One of the greatest acts of charity is to pray for the living and the dead, and the greatest and most powerful prayer we have is the Mass. For this reason, all are encouraged to have a Mass offered for loved ones who have died, or even for the living who have some need.

Our Lady of Grace has immediate openings for Mass Intentions for Fr. Maus and Fr. Degele. The Mass for the intentions may not be scheduled at Our Lady of Grace, but we will notify you during the week the Mass is to be said – the date and the location of the Mass. These Mass intentions will be offered by Fr. Maus and Fr. Degele when they concelebrate the Mass here at Our Lady of Grace, when they offer Masses at the Assisted Living Centers and Nursing homes, at Bishop Ryan or wherever they may celebrate a Mass.

Stewardship of Time, Talent and Treasure

Did you know... Jesus asks us to demonstrate our love for him through our generosity to others. In our everyday lives, he calls us to share our gifts of time, talent and treasure with others. We would like to thank the Altar Society who share their time and talents when baking bars and serving the grieving families at a funeral reception. We need men and women to step up to help serve these families - our fellow parishioners and their loved ones. Please call the parish office if you can help. You do not need to be a member of Altar Society or Knights to volunteer.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel today we see how Jesus sent his Apostles out two by two. From the beginning of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, members visit in pairs "two by two", those who are poor and needy in their homes. It is there, in the family setting, that Vincentians listen, offer humble advice, and render assistance.

Have you considered answering the call to help serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul? 833-1269.

Next Week's Gospel: Mark 6:30-3416th Sunday in Ordinary Time – July 18, 2021Gospel Reflection

The apostles have just returned from their first missionary journey. They want to tell Jesus all about it. He leads them off to a quiet place where they can tell their stories. But the crowds follow them because they are hungry for Jesus' teaching and his healing touch.

Seeing the crowd, Jesus is moved to respond to them. They are like sheep that have been scattered. Out of love, the Good Shepherd calls them together and guides them. The apostles' adventure stories will have to wait.

Discussion Questions for Gospel

Describe how you might react to the following scene: You are telling your parents at the dinner table all about an exciting event you shared with your friends. Your younger sister or brother keeps interrupting and demanding your parents' attention. How do you feel? What do you do? When others make demands on you at times when you need to rest, what is your usual response?

What can we learn from the example of Jesus in this Gospel passage? How will you try to follow that example in your daily life?

Prayer to the Lily of the Mohawks

Blessed Kateri, you are revered as the mystic of the American wilderness. Though orphaned at the age of four, and left with a scarred face and damaged eyesight from illness, you were esteemed among the Mohawk tribe. When you asked to be baptized a Christian you subjected yourself to abuse by your people and were forced to run away.

You endured many trials but still flowered in prayer and holiness, dedicating yourself totally to Christ. I ask you to be my spiritual guide along my journey through life. Through your intercession, I pray that I may always be loyal to my faith in all things. Amen.
