Who We Are

St. Mary of the Bay Food Pantry is an all-volunteer lay organization. We strive to provide food for anyone in need, regardless of creed, ethnic or social background, health, gender, or political opinions. Each person who walks through our doors is welcomed with a smile and treated with dignity and respect.

Frequently Asked Questions

- How often may I visit? You are welcome to visit us weekly.
- What do I need to bring? All you need is some form of identification and grocery bags for us to fill.
- Do I have to live in Warren or the East Bay? No, we serve all of Rhode Island.
- How do I shop? We use a client-choice shopping model, allowing pantry guests to choose foods they would like each week from a variety of options.
- Do you allow proxy shoppers? Yes, for anyone who cannot make it into the pantry during our regular hours. Please call to arrange this.
- Are there any other services offered? Yes, we have a free thrift shop open to all pantry guests during pantry hours. Mary's Closet offers gently used clothes, kitchenwares, books, etc. We also offer a CSFP (Senior Box) monthly food program and can refer you to other local agencies for support.
- Who can I contact with more questions? If you have any additional questions, please come into the pantry during our open hours or call us, using the contact information above.
