From the Desk of Father Beau:

Friends, in our Gospel for the First Sunday of Lent, Luke gives us the story of the temptation in the desert. At every point in the Gospels, we are meant to identify with Jesus. God became man that man might become God. We participate in him and thereby learn what a godly life is like.

Jesus has just been baptized; he has just learned his deepest identity and mission. And now he confronts—as we all must—the great temptations. What precisely is entailed in being the beloved Son of God?

First, the tempter urges him to use his divine power to satisfy his bodily desires, which Jesus dismisses with a word. Having failed at his first attempt, the devil shifts to perhaps the greatest of the temptations: power. Power is extremely seductive. Many would gladly eschew material things or attention or fame in order to get it. Jesus' great answer in Matthew's account of this story is "Get away, Satan!" To seek power is to serve Satan—it is stated that bluntly.

Finally, the devil plays a subtler game—he tempts Jesus to manipulate his Father, encouraging him to jump from the temple and let angels save him. It is the temptation faced by Adam and Eve in the garden; deciding how and when God will act."

Our parishes are now taking up a collection for Easter Lilies to decorate their church during the Easter Season. The cost of the lilies is $25.00. Please put your money and name of the person being honored or remembered in an envelope and drop into the collection basket, or bring/mail to your parish office.

Upcoming Collection: On the weekend of March 19-20, honoring St Joseph as the patron of exiles and the afflicted, we will take up a special collection for victims of the war in Ukraine and the resulting humanitarian crisis.

The Diocese will be conducting a financial/internal control review of our parishes this month. Reviews are conducted by the Diocese on a cyclical basis. The purpose of the review is to ensure good stewardship and to share best practices for parish financial operations. The outcome of the review will be a report of findings and potentially some corrective action plans. The parish financial reviewer, Mary Ann Kepler, may be contacted at: maryann.kepler@duluthcatholic.org or 218-728-8365.

Our parishes are now taking up the 138th annual National Black and Indian Mission Collection. Our support of this collection helps build the Church in African American, Native American and Alaska Native communities from coast to coast. Schools, parish religious education programs and diocesan ministries depend on your generosity to help them spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Thank you for your generosity!
