Bishop Turley's Office Hours for October

Our rector, Bishop Dan Turley, OSA, will be available, by appointment, for spiritual direction, confession, or consultation, on the following dates:

Thursday, October 2, 9:30am to 1:00PM

Thursday, October 30, 9:30 am to 1:00PM

Email dturley@cabrinationalshrine.org

"Will not God secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night?"

(Lk 18:7)

The widow's persistence reveals faith that refuses to let go, trusting God's justice. Like Moses with uplifted arms, we need others to help us persevere in prayer. Prayer is not weary repetition but fidelity rooted in hope.

Commit to one intention and pray for it daily this week, inviting a friend to pray with you.

WE HAVE EXPANDED THE MOTHER CABRINI WALL OF REMEMBRANCE

Located in the Narthex on your left as you walk in, then an immediate right in the alcove, close to the Mother Cabrini Statue.

A meaningful way to remember your loved ones.

Hope Without Borders

October is the month of the Most Holy Rosary

Cabrini Rosary Booklets are available in the Gift Shop in English and Spanish.

The Gift Shop carries a wide variety of Rosaries. New ones include both single decade and full rosaries with Pope Leo XIV, and a new wooden one with Mother Cabrini’s image on all the large beads. The single decade rosaries have a clasp so they can be hung on the mirror in a car. Our most popular rosaries are those with a Cabrini second class relic “ex indumentis” - from the clothes. We invite you to stop in and see the entire collection.

More Cabrini News from Rome

This picture is from the Global Assembly of the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus which took place in Rome October 10-12. Familiar faces include several sisters who recently gave talks here: Sister Patricia, Sister Asnakech and Sister Sonnia; and our Chicago sisters: Sister Joaquina, Sister Lucy and Sister Laura; Superior General, Sister Eliane and Shrine Board members Sister Bernadette and Sister Antonina, former Superior General and board member Sister Barbara, and Sister Sharon who was with us for a few months. We thank all these Sisters for their vocations.

Mother Cabrini - Quote of the Week

Writing from Panama, June 3 1895:

“Yesterday we were visited by the most tender and valiant of friends, the Holy Spirit. Oh how beautiful, gentle and lovable is the Holy Spirit! He loves us tenderly, immensely, constantly. We, the portion and inheritance of Christ, washed clean in His blood, have become the living temples of the Holy Spirit, that is, living members, home and dwelling place of the Divine Paraclete. His breath gently blows around us constantly. His light enlightens our minds so that they are able to life themselves to God, and contemplate His perfection, attributes and infinite marvels. His grace abundantly enriches our souls. The Holy Spirit, who first descended upon the apostles, always descends upon the Church and upon our souls because our loving Jesus merited for us the precious gift of the Holy Spirit. By the merits of Jesus Christ and through the Holy Spirit, we have become rich in grace and every heavenly gift. Oh, transcendent, infinite gift, superior to any created merit!”

“‘When the Holy Spirit comes in you,’ (John 16:13) Jesus says to his apostles, ‘then you will know the truth which I have preached to you.’ Jesus Himself could have well communicated to the apostles the knowledge of the truth but did not wish to do so, in order to glorify the Holy Spirit. This glory He wished to reserve to the Divine Paraclete, substantial love of the Father and the Son, uncreated light, perennial fountain of grace and virtue, and the source of all good...It is a daily work, delightful, glorious.”
