Who Are The Catholic Daughters?

The Catholic Daughters of the Americas is one of the oldest and largest organizations of Catholic women in the Americas

They donate to charities, administer scholarship programs and strive “to be helping hands where there is pain, poverty, sorrow or sickness.”

The CDA motto is “Unity and Charity.”

The CDA was formed over 100 years ago and today numbers 75,000 dues paying members in 1,250 courts (local chapters) in 45 states across the US, and Puerto Rico, Mexico, Guam, and the Virgin Island.

Fulton’s Court Pere` LeMoyne was founded in 1923 it was the 833 court in the United States. Our court was named for St. Pere` LeMoyne whose was martyred by the American Natives as he was a missionary priest in Canada and NewYork State. At one time there were close to 300 members in Fulton. We now have members from Central Square and Mexico as well as Fulton.

Catholic Daughter women enjoy each other’s company at meeting and work hard for their parishes and communities.

Deeply spiritual, together they share faith, love of Fod and a distinctly feminine spirituality alluded to by Pope John Paul II when he spoke of the necessity of “feminine genius” in today’s world.

The program includes concerns of today’s church and society as well as issues that affect the well-being of women and children.

The Legislative Program encourages intested members to learn about laws that may influence their faith and to contact their state representatives to make their personal positions known through Operation Morning Star (The Catholic Daughters of the Americas does not endorse political candidates).
