Easter Sunday —April 16, 2017

I know well the plans I have in mind for you, Says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope. When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says the Lord, and I will change your lot...

Volunteers / Catechists Needed

You should have received your Stewardship information in the mail, and I would like to invite you to share your talents, sharing the Good News with others. Vacation Bible School is in June, and our Parrish will need help teaching our children that week about Jesus Christ. In the fall, there will be openings for a catechist to teach our children about our Faith. And, in RCIA, there are openings on the RCIA team to invite/ sponsor an individual as they consider joining the church, give a presentation on a specific topic, or bring snacks and make everyone feel welcome. As we start this Easter season, please consider Jesus' message in "teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age". (Matthew 28:20)

Please call the office and let know Cyndi or Norm about your interests. If you have any questions about what may be required, please call or email Norm at bmcreled@bellsouth.net.

Easter Treats to Davco

On Wednesday, April 19, Fr. Mike and others will take the Easter Treats to Davco Personal Care Home. If you would like to join us, meet us in the Blessed Mother Church parking lot at 8:45 AM. We plan to arrive at Davco at 9:00 AM. Hope you will join us! Davco is located at 2526 W. 10th Street.

Cultural Workshop | June 6-8, 2017

The Diocese is pleased to host a workshop this summer addressing the challenges of evangelization in a multicultural Church, how to interact and communicate effectively with other cultures, obstacles including racism and stereotypes, and how to maneuver toward ecclesial integration versus assimilation in the Church. The workshop cost is $30 and lodging is available at Mount St. Joseph Conference & Retreat Center for $30/night. To attend, please visit owensborodiocese.org/bicmworkshop/.

"If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God."

Easter is when we celebrate the most earth shattering event in the history of humanity, when Christ destroyed sin and death and rose from the dead. This glorious mystery of our faith calls us to the greatest hope, eternal life with God. Our vocation is God's plan to get us from earth to heaven. If you have ever felt that God is calling you to the vocation of priesthood, contact the vocations office:

A Note from your DRE...

Happy Easter! This has been a really different Lent for me. While I was confronted with all the normal challenges and temptations of the season, I encountered a whole new set of challenges as the Director of Religious Education. Thank you for your prayers in helping me through the season. There were no Religious Education classes or RCIA last week due to Holy Week and Easter Sunday.

Depending upon what Mass you went to this weekend, and more specifically which time, you heard a different Gospel reading. However, each Gospel tells us that on Easter Sunday, the first person Jesus appears to is Mary Magdalene. When we consider the time in history, it is a woman that will be the first to proclaim Jesus' resurrection from the dead. And, not only a woman, but a woman who had been possessed and was believed to be 'crazy' by those who knew her. Yet, that is the power of Jesus Christ - through the amazing witness of our lives - what we may find to be insignificant, has a tremendous impact on others. From the Gospel of Luke Chapter 24, "The Lord has truly been raised and appeared to Simon". "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?"

On this Easter Day and this Easter Season, I pray that your hearts will be burning within you for the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

A priest was speaking to a group of second-graders about the resurrection of Jesus when one student asked, "What did Jesus say right after He came out of the grave?"

The priest explained that the Gospels do not tell us what He said.

John 20:1-9

"For they did not yet understand the Scripture, that he had to rise from the dead."

Happy Celebration of the Resurrection of the Second Person of the Holy Trinity from Human Death as Proof of Eternal Life for Those Who Believe in Jesus! Or, to shorten that, Happy Easter! It is Incredible! [From Miriam Webster Dictionary: in.cred.i ble (adjective) \ in-kre-d-bəl\ 1. difficult or impossible to believe; 2. extremely good, great, or large.] For the disciples "rise from the dead" was difficult or impossible to believe. The salvation of all mankind it is extreme good, great and large. The multi-colored egg laying bunny, the chocolate and sugar treats in a basket full of fake straw, the fancy clothes and elaborate bonnets are all trappings we have adopted to help celebrate the incredible act of God incarnate as a human being who was born, lived, died and rose from the dead to save the human beings He created out of unconditional love. As we enjoy the trappings let us not fail to truly celebrate the Incredible REALITY of Easter. So, HAPPY EASTER!!!!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"Then they went away quickly from the tomb, fearful yet overjoyed." The two Marys were in for a surprise. They had come, as usual, to do the ritual anointing of their dead friend's body. But on their arrival, not only was there an earthquake, there was also an angel whose "appearance was like lightning" and whose "clothing was white as snow." The brave guards were so scared they "became like dead men," but the women managed to stay on their feet and hear the words of the angel. Guess what! Jesus isn't here. He's been raised from the dead. Now go share the good news!

No wonder these women were feeling a mixture of emotions! They were frightened by these incredible supernatural events, but overjoyed that Jesus was alive again. Just imagine their joy when "Jesus met them on their way," and they were able to embrace him and worship him. What a day!

Now, we too join in the celebration of this day of all days. Every Easter, we recall these glorious events, but we do more than just remember. We also rejoice that our Lord is alive right now, that death and sin have been conquered forever, that the gates of heaven are open for us. The joy of Easter is not a nostalgic kind of happiness that only looks backwards. It is instead a call to rejoice in the gifts that we can enjoy today and in eternity.

We may not have seen the angel, felt the earthquake, or kissed the feet of the risen Lord, but we are nonetheless the beneficiaries of this momentous event. We are an Easter people, a people in the hands of a loving God whose power can overcome all the terrible threats and trials of existence with the amazing gift of eternal life.
