Corpus Christie Sunday June 18, 2017

I know well the plans I have in mind for you, Says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope. When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says the Lord, and I will change your lot...

A note from your DRE...

From the Gospel of John, Chapter 6 on this Corpus Christi Sunday, Jesus says “whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life”. As Catholics, we believe that when the bread and wine are consecrated at Mass, they become the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus. And, even though the accidents are retained, Jesus is truly, really, and substantially present. We offer the most pure sacrifice, Jesus, to our God, and then we receive Grace in the sacrament. You may know people, especially our non-Catholic Christian brothers and sisters, who think this is just a symbol. We know from the Old Testament that actual blood of animals is used in sacrifice. In the Last Supper discourses in Matthew, Mark, and Luke, Jesus specifically uses the phrase that this is the “blood” of the new covenant. And, if we return to John’s Gospel, we read that other people cannot accept Jesus’ teaching on consuming his “flesh” and “blood” and walk away from him. Jesus doesn’t later meet privately with the disciples to translate this as a parable and tell them it is just a symbol. I pray we continue to have the reverence for the Eucharist and celebrate it well.

Returning to our discussion of the Ten Commandments, the third is “Remember the Sabbath day—keep it holy.” From the Catechism of the Catholic Church 2169, 2170, & 2175 this commandment should remind us that God “rested the seventh day” in the creation story, and provided a memorial day for “Israel’s liberation” from slavery in Egypt. In the resurrection of Jesus, “Sunday fulfills the spiritual truth of the Jewish Sabbath”. We later read in the Catechism about our ‘Sunday obligation’ to participate in Mass. And, while that is a great place to start, hopefully the Mass becomes more than just an obligation for us, and provides us an opportunity to spend time in relationship with God. Finally the catechism discusses this as a day of grace and rest. And, even though some are required to work on Sundays, there should still be time for worship, leisure activities, care for families, and relaxation of the mind and body.

On the weekend, Happy Father’s Day. One of my favorite prayers for fathers is found in the Baptismal Rite. “God is the giver of all life, human and divine. May he bless the father of this child. He and his wife will be the first teachers of their child in the way of faith. May they be also the best of teachers, bearing witness to the faith by what they say and do, in Christ Jesus our Lord”.

Laugh of the Week

From a Child's Heart

A daddy was listening to his child say her prayers. "Dear Harold..."

"Wait a minute honey, how come you called God 'Harold'?"

The little girl looked up and said, "That's what they call him in church. You know the prayer we say, 'Our Father, who art in heaven, Harold be Thy name.'"

Prayers Needed

Steve and his wife, Leigh Anne, daughter Vivian (8th grade at OCMS), son Jack (6th grade at OC 4/6 campus) are members of Immaculate Parish. Steve is recovering and anticipates being in Indianapolis for at least 3 weeks for medical care. A benefit account has been set up at First Security Bank for Steve Terry. Donation checks need to be made to "Steve Terry"- in the memo line, write "benefit account" so the money is placed in the correct account. All prayers, help, and donations are appreciated!

Forming Good Stewards

Matthew 28:16-20

"Go, therefore and make disciples of all nations . . ."
After his resurrection Jesus revealed himself to his disciples who had been his most faithful followers to prepare them for the day when he would return to his Father and no longer be physically with them. Jesus knew it would take time for them to fully realize the meaning of all they had seen and heard; they would be uncertain and fearful about how to proceed with out him to lead and teach them; they would have to choose whether or not to accept the task of carrying on his mission and teaching others his message by their words and actions. After they saw Jesus ascend to his Father they banded together in anxiety and uncertainty. We may be tempted to judge them harshly for their lack of faith and courage. But what would we have done? They believed in Jesus but they had witnessed many unusual and frightening things. They stayed together and resolved their doubts and conquered their fears. When we have doubts and fears do we stay together? Do we spend time in prayer to resolve our doubts and act with courage?

Sophia Awards 2017

Made For More Summer Camp for High School Men

"The world offers you comfort. But you were not made for comfort. You were made for greatness" Pope Benedict XVI. What are you supposed to do with your life? What does God want you to do with your life? This camp is for young men (high school) who have the courage to begin asking those questions and who want to give their lives to the One who first gave His life for us. Made for More is about giving your life to God. Whether you are being called to marriage, priesthood, consecrated life, or single missionary life, this camp is for you. Seek more to life than just getting by. Refuse to settle for anything less than the greatness to which God calls you. Strive to be the best Catholic man you can be. While attending this camp, participate in all the activities Gasper River Retreat Center has to offer: Zip-line, Low elements, Vertical playground, Giant swing, Jacob's Ladder, and much more. Scholarships are available for those who need assistance. Register at gasperiverretreatcenter.org.
